Preliminary study of the relationship between climate vegetation 1957 59 in the Lake Hazen area Estimating Potential Growth in the Middle East and Central Asia Ms.Pritha Mitra,Amr Hosny,Gohar Abajyan,Mr.Mark Fischer,2015-03-20 The Middle East and Central Asia s economic growth potential is slowing faster than in other emerging and developing regions dampening hopes for reducing persistent unemployment and improving the region s generally low living standards Why And is it possible to alter this course This paper addresses these questions by estimating potential growth examining its supply side drivers and assessing which of them could be most effective in raising potential growth The analysis reveals that the region s potential growth is expected to slow by 3 4 of a percentage point more than the EMDC average over the next five years The reasons behind this slowdown differ across the region Lower productivity growth drives the slowdown in the Caucasus and Central Asia and is also weighing on growth across the Middle East MENAP while a lower labor contribution to potential growth is the main driver in MENAP Moving forward given some natural constraints on labor total factor productivity growth is key to unlocking the region s higher growth potential For oil importers raising physical capital accumulation through greater investment will also play an important role Sweet's Engineering & Retrofit, Mechanical, Electrical, Civil/structural Catalog File ,1992 Federal Register ,1988-05-27 Connections between Steel and Concrete Rolf Eligehausen,Werner Fuchs,Philipp Grosser,Giovacchino Genesio,2012-02-27 Anchorage by fasteners and composite structures of steel and concrete have seen dramatic progress in research technology and application over the past decades The understanding of the fundamental principles underlying both disciplines has significantly improved Concurrently there has been rapid growth in the development of sophisticated new products and the establishment of international directives and codes to ensure their safe and economical use in a wide range of engineered structures Although they deal with very similar problems the two disciplines have developed independently from each other To optimize the use of composite structures and fastenings to concrete however it is necessary to have knowledge of both the local behavior of the fastening system and the global behavior of the structure It became apparent that a forum offering the opportunity to expand and to exchange experience in the field of connecting steel and concrete would benefit all involved Furthermore this forum would aid in the rapid dissemination of new ideas technologies and solutions as well as explore new areas of research This book forms the Proceedings of the 2 Symposium on Connections between Steel and Concrete As the 1 Symposium in 2001 it brought together leading experts from all facets of the research design construction and anchor manufacturing community from around the world Their lectures covered the topics test methods behavior and design dynamic loading shock earthquake fatigue durability exceptional applications strengthening and structures related topics In total 129 papers are gathered in these 2 volumes The Law and Economics of Article 102 TFEU Robert O'Donoghue KC, Jorge Padilla, 2014-07-18 The Law and Economics of Article 102 TFEU is a comprehensive integrated treatment of the legal and economic principles that underpin the application of Article 102 TFEU to the behaviour of dominant firms Traditional concerns of monopoly behaviour such as predatory pricing refusals to deal excessive pricing tying and bundling discount practices and unlawful discrimination are treated in detail through a review of the applicable economic principles the case law and decisional practice and more recent economic and legal writings In addition the major constituent elements of Article 102 TFEU such as market definition dominance effect on trade and applicable remedies are considered at length Jointly authored by a lawyer and an economist The Law and Economics of Article 102 TFEU contains an integrated approach to the legal and economic principles that frame policy in this major area of competition law Although written primarily with practitioners and in house lawyers in mind it is essential reading for anyone with an interest in competition law enforcement against monopoly behaviour ENR. ,2006 California Builder & Engineer ,1997 Builder ,2000
