Hyun-Joo Lim

Usfk Holiday 2015:

North Korean Women and Defection Hyun-Joo Lim, 2023-11-29 Recent North Korean diaspora has given rise to female refugee groups fighting for the protection of women's rights. Presenting in depth accounts of North Korean women defectors living in the UK, this book examines how their harrowing experiences have become an impetus for their activism. The author also reveals how their utopian dream of a better future for fellow North Korean women is vital in their activism. Unique in its focus on the intersections between gender politics, activism and mobility, Lim's illuminating work will inform debates on activism and human rights internationally. The Global Politics of Human Rights Miguel Ángel Verde Garrido, Philani Mthembu, Adam S. Wilkins, 2020-07-13 Now available online. The Global Politics of Human Rights: Bringing the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) into the 21st Century 2020, a publication from the Berlin Forum on Global Politics (BFGP) in collaboration with the Institute for Global Dialogue and the RECLAIM Universal Human Rights Initiative. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) even more than 70 years after its adoption continues to provide the foundation for national and international laws concerned with human dignity and the universal and inalienable freedoms and claims of every person. A living document, the core principles enshrined in the UDHR are as relevant as ever to better the human condition and societies worldwide. This collected volume is an open knowledge publication freely accessible under a Creative Commons license which includes 24 articles written by numerous well-informed stakeholders from across the globe who include human rights scholars and practitioners, experts and activists, researchers and members of civil society and non-governmental organizations. It addresses particular aspects of the history of the UDHR, the expansion and implementation of its Articles, its role in the prevention of violence and its potential to address a changing world. As a whole, the publication serves two goals: on the one hand, it clarifies why the UDHR continues to be strongly relevant to the contemporary values, dynamics and conditions of human rights in the 21st century; and on the other hand, it illustrates how the UDHR and its Articles can be further adapted and implemented to uphold and safeguard human rights even in times when global politics often follow the siren songs of populism, authoritarianism, nativism and extremism. Defense White Paper, 2016 The Changing Military Balance in the Koreas and Northeast Asia Anthony H. Cordesman, Aaron Lin, 2015-07-07 The tensions between the Koreas and the potential involvement of China, Japan, Russia and the United States in a Korean conflict create a nearly open-ended spectrum of possible conflicts. These conflicts could range from posturing and threats to a major conventional conflict on the Korean peninsula with intervention by outside powers to the extreme of nuclear conflict. The Korean balance is also affected by the uncertain mix of cooperation and competition between the United States and China, particularly with the US pivot toward Asia and the steady modernization of Chinese forces. This new volume, up to date through Spring 2015, provides a detailed examination of the military forces in Northeast Asia: North and South Korea, China, Russia, Japan and the United States, setting those forces in the larger geostrategic context.
