Uwc Prospectus 2015:

Ecumenical Encounters with Desmond Mpilo Tutu Sarojini Nadar, Tinyiko Maluleke, Dietrich Werner, Vicentia Kgabe, Rudolf Hinz, 2021-10-07 This inspiring collection of 72 critical and creative contributions honouring the life and work of Desmond Mpilo Tutu comprises a rich and diverse array of reflections on the ecumenical global struggle against Apartheid and Archbishop Tutu's role therein as a political priest prophet and intellectual. The encounters with the Arch and his work has shaped ongoing faith based activist and academic pursuits for justice peace and dignity. Anyone familiar with his outstanding contributions to the promotion of justice dignity and peace will know that a hallmark of Desmond Tutu's celebrated style is his use of narrative and real life stories. In honour of his unique and remarkable example the contributions in this book combine oral history and written history paradigms as well as sociological philosophical and theological approaches. While the book is meant to be a memorial recollection of encounters with the Arch the hope is that these recollections will continue to inspire collective struggles and hopes for justice peace and dignity.

Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela, Shanali Govender, 2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges and higher education institutions. Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training (PSET) sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials. This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic cultural and political obstacles facing PSET drawing on Nancy Fraser s theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News I. A. Mekeel, Charles Esterly Severn, Stephen B. Hopkins, 1917 Theory and Practice in Heritage and Sustainability Elizabeth Auclair, Graham Fairclough, 2015-04-22 This book explores cultural sustainability and its relationships to heritage from a wide interdisciplinary perspective By examining the interactions between people and communities in the places where they live it exemplifies the diverse ways in which a people centred heritage builds identities and supports individual and collective memories It encourages a view of heritage as a process that contributes through cultural sustainability to human well being and socially and culturally sensitive policy With theoretically informed case studies from leading researchers the book addresses both concepts and practice in a range of places and contexts including landscape townscape museums industrial sites every day heritage ordinary places and the local scene and even UNESCO designated sites The contributors most of whom like the editors were members of the COST Action Investigating Cultural Sustainability demonstrate in a cohesive way how the cultural values that people attach to place are enmeshed with issues of memory identity and aspiration and how they therefore stand at the centre of sustainability discourse and practice The cases are drawn from many parts of Europe but notably from the Baltic and central and south eastern Europe regions with distinctive recent histories and cultural approaches and heritage discourses that offer less well known but transferable insights They all illustrate the contribution that dealing with the inheritance of the past can make to a full cultural engagement with sustainable development The book provides an introductory framework to guide readers and a concluding section that draws on the case studies to emphasise their transferability and specificity and to outline the potential contribution of the examples to future research practice and policy in cultural sustainability This is a unique offering for postgraduate students researchers and professionals interested in heritage management governance and community participation and cultural sustainability UCOL Universal College of Learning, 2015
