West Africa B E C E 2016:

Understanding West Africa's Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah, Ismail Rashid, 2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarming they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world Teacher Education at the Edge Tonya Huber, James G. O'Meara, 2019-12-01 International Education Inquiries is a book series dedicated to realizing the global vision of Education 2030 This vision involves ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all The founding editors seek to provide a forum for the diverse voices of scholars and practitioners from across the globe asking questions about transforming the vision of Education 2030 into a reality Published chapters will reflect a variety of formats free of methodological restrictions involving disciplinary as well as interdisciplinary inquiries We expect the series will be a leading forum for pioneers redefining the global discussion about the people places and perspectives shaping Education 2030 outcomes Education 2030 topics of interest include but are not limited to Improving access to quality early childhood development care and pre primary education Ensuring equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality education Increasing the number of youth and adults who have skills relevant for sustainable living and livelihoods Ensuring equal access for the vulnerable including persons with disabilities indigenous peoples and children in vulnerable situations Achieving levels of literacy and numeracy required to engage in communities and employment Acquiring the knowledge and skills needed to promote sustainable development including Human right Gender equality Promotion of a culture of peace and non violence Global citizenship education The appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture s contributions to sustainable development Providing safe non violent inclusive and effective learning environments for all Recruiting preparing supporting and retaining quality teachers Factors contributing to academic performance of students in a Junior High School Anthony Abaidoo, 2018-11-22 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Pedagogy School System Educational and School Politics grade 5 GHA System University of Education Distance Learning course Post Graduate Diploma in Education language English abstract Students academic performance is a key feature in education This study was therefore conducted primarily to assess the factors contributing to improvement in academic performance of

Junior High Students JHS in a Basic School which is in the Gomo East District in the Central Region of Ghana The mixed and descriptive research design was used and a sample size of 87 respondents 79 students and 8 teachers were selected through random sampling technique The findings revealed that the average academic performance 47 0% of the JHS students in the Basic School is weak and their performance in Mathematics average score of 31 48% and English Language average score of 39 99% is a fail It was noticed that student factors that contribute to an improvement in academic performance include regular studying self motivation punctuality and regular class attendance hard work and interest in a subject The teacher factors were completion of syllabus use of TLM s frequent feedback to students and given students special attention Per the findings parent factors which was very key was parent showing concern in their children s academics and providing them their academic needs School factors that were significant included availability of text books and TLM s The study also found that parent level of education and gender has a positive relationship with academic performance but it s insignificant However age has a positive significant 5% significance level relationship with academic performance Based on findings the study recommends that there should be strict monitoring on teachers to vary their teaching methods to suit their needs of the students and also to provide the students with constant feedback on their academic performance Again the students should be motivated and orientated to take ownership of their studies by having regular studies and attending school during school days

The Impacts of Language and Literacy Policy on Teaching Practices in Ghana Philomena Osseo-Asare, 2021-03-15 This text critically examines changes in Ghanaian language and literacy policy following independence in 1957 to consider its impacts on early literacy teaching By adopting a postcolonial theoretical perspective the text interrogates the logic behind policy changes which have prioritised English local language or biliteracy It draws on data from interviews with teachers and researcher observation to demonstrate how policies have influenced teaching and learning Dr Osseo Asare s findings inform the development of a conceptual framework which highlights the socio cultural factors that impact the literacy and biliteracy of young children in Ghana offering solutions to help teachers combat the challenges of frequent policy changes This timely monograph will prove to be an essential resource not only for researchers working on education policies teacher education and English language learning in postcolonial Ghana but also for those looking to identify the thematic and methodological nuances of studying literacy and education in postcolonial contexts Greening Industrialization in Sub-Saharan Africa Ralph Luken,Edward Clarence-Smith,2020-04-21 This book explores the concept of greening industrialisation and issues and considerations surrounding it through the lens of Sub Saharan Africa The book critically examines the concept of greening industrialisation and describes the progress and data challenges of monitoring the Sustainable Development Goals confronting African countries The chapters summarise the policy and programme literature focused on eight policy regimes essential for greening industrialisation and identify opportunities for greening industrial policies The authors lay out a research agenda that would inform enable and support greening industrialisation in Sub Saharan Africa and provide an overview of green industrial plans that include climate strategies energy efficiency strategies and green industry assessments This book will be of great interest to students scholars policy makers and planners in the fields of Sub Saharan African development and African environmentalism Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs),2014-07-23 Adaptation to Climate Change and Variability in Rural West Africa Joseph A. Yaro,Jan Hesselberg,2016-04-12 This book presents conceptual and empirical discussions of adaptation to climate change variability in West Africa Highlighting different countries experiences in adaptation by different socio economic groups and efforts at building their adaptive capacity it offers readers a holistic understanding of adaptation on the basis of contextual and generic sources of adaptive capacity Focusing on adaptation to climate change variability is critical because the developmental challenges West Africa faces are increasingly intertwined with its climate history Today climate change is a major developmental issue for agrarian rural communities with high percentages of the population earning a living directly or indirectly from the natural environment This makes them highly vulnerable to climate driven ecological change in addition to threats in the broader political economic context It is imperative that rural people adapt to climate change but their ability to successfully do so may be limited by competing risks and vulnerabilities As such elucidating those vulnerabilities and sources of strength with regard to the adaptive capacities needed to support successful adaptation and avoid maladaptation is critical for future policy formulation Though the empirical discussion is geographically based on West Africa its applicability in terms of the processes structures needs strategies and recommendations for policy transcends the region and provides useful lessons for understanding adaptation broadly in the developing world Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock,2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends
