The Carbon Buster's Home Energy Handbook Godo Stoyke, 2006-11-01 Most people are unaware that environmental problems such as climate change can be easily avoided at a profit through the intelligent application of appropriate technology. The Carbon Buster's Home Energy Handbook describes how to achieve this goal in the residential field. The first book in North America to provide a detailed carbon accounting of a family's carbon emissions and how to reduce them, it systematically analyzes energy costs and evaluates which measures yield the highest returns for the environment and the pocketbook. It provides answers to questions such as: Which measure is more effective: putting solar panels on your roof or buying a hybrid car? Where do I need to invest first: in high efficiency shower heads or solar tubes? Is a 500 fridge that uses 800 kWh of power per year a good buy? The book allows individuals to quickly and accurately assess which products are a good deal and which aren't. It systematically analyzes residential carbon emissions and energy costs and prioritizes solutions based on highest carbon reductions and monetary returns, yielding results that are often surprising. The book enables readers to dramatically reduce their carbon emissions far below the levels targeted under the Kyoto Protocol. At the same time, readers implementing the recommendations will save an average of 15,000 in energy costs over the next five years.

Handbook of Advertising Gerard J. Tellis, Tim Ambler, 2007-10-24 In this era of snackable content, which satisfies only in the moment, it's great to have a comprehensive Advertising Handbook which one can consult repeatedly. The references are comprehensive, and the Handbook opens up many key areas for practitioners. Hamish Pringle, Director General IPA. Finally, a Handbook of Advertising that brings the field up to date. I am impressed with its comprehensive coverage of topics and the distinguished specialists who have shared their key findings with us. Philip Kotler, Kellogg School of Management. When trying to make sense of the mystifying world of advertising, academics and practitioners often seem to inhabit separate universes.

Not in this Handbook For once the best brains from each side genuinely collude with constructive results Wise agencies will read it before their clients do Sir Martin Sorrell CEO WPP This mighty tome brings together a vast range of views of advertising based on deep experience and scholarship For practitioners and academics alike it will be a voyage of discovery and enlightenment Lord Maurice Saatchi Chairman M C Saatchi This magnificent volume captures all we need to know about how advertising works and its context Baroness Peta Buscombe Director General Advertising Association London Advertising is a field that has attracted a great deal of academic attention but to date there has been no summarising of the state of the art of research This far reaching and scholarly Handbook is edited by two highly respected and trusted thinkers in the field and includes contributions from leading academics based in both the UK and the USA Tim Ambler and Gerald J Tellis archive their aim of setting advertising and the theory that underpins it in its historical and societal context show casing the most significant advertising research questions of our time and pointing readers in the direction of future avenues for fruitful investigation The SAGE Handbook of Advertising would be a welcome addition to any marketing academics bookshelf

Managing eBook Metadata in Academic Libraries Donna E Frederick,2016-01-07 Managing ebook Metadata in Academic Libraries Taming the Tiger tackles the topic of ebooks in academic libraries a trend that has been welcomed by students faculty researchers and library staff However at the same time the reality of acquiring ebooks making them discoverable and managing them presents library staff with many new challenges Traditional methods of cataloging and managing library resources are no longer relevant where the purchasing of ebooks in packages and demand driven acquisitions are the predominant models for acquiring new content Most academic libraries have a complex metadata environment wherein multiple systems draw upon the same metadata for different purposes This complexity makes the need for standards based interoperable metadata more important than ever In addition to complexity the nature of the metadata environment itself typically varies slightly from library to library making it difficult to recommend a single set of practices and procedures which would be relevant to and effective in all academic libraries Considering all of these factors together it is not surprising when academic libraries find it difficult to create and manage the metadata for their ebook collections This book is written as a guide for metadata librarians other technical services librarians and ancillary library staff who manage ebook collections to help them understand the requirements for ebook metadata in their specific library context to create a vision for ebook metadata management and to develop a plan which addresses the relevant issues in metadata management at all stages of the lifecycle of ebooks in academic libraries from selection to deselection or preservation Explores the reasons behind creating records for our resources and challenges libraries to think about what that means for their context Discusses the complex nature of academic libraries and the electronic resources they require Encourages librarians to find their own way to manage metadata
