readers behind the scenes to see what life is really like for the people who produce Canada's food. Now as a leading activist in the migrant justice movement in Canada, Gabriel is fighting back against the Canadian government to demand rights and respect for temporary foreign labourers. Harvesting Freedom shows Canada's place in the long history of slavery, colonialism, and inequality that has linked the Caribbean to the wider world for half a millennium, but also the tireless determination of Caribbean people to fight for their freedom.

In this fascinating account of scientific study among forbidding wilderness, a husband and wife team describe their trek to the Kalahari to study the little-known brown hyena. The details of the scientific inquiry are provided, while the daily challenges of living with children 420 kilometers from the nearest town are described. Despite the hardships, the couple becomes so enchanted by these intelligent animals that they stay for 12 years, documenting many hyena clans and observing behavior only a handful of people have ever seen.

Murder of A President Kadayam Krishnan, 2021-01-16. Cairo, October 06, 1981. President Muhammad Anwar el Sadat of Egypt was gunned down in cold blood on that day. What nobody knew was that three innocent South Indians got entangled in that assassination. This tale will take you back to a shocking incident in the 80s when President Anwar el Sadat of Egypt was assassinated during a military parade in Cairo. Three Indians from Mylapore, Madras, happen to be employed in erstwhile North Sudan at that time. They get sucked into the vortex of the murder. One of them is forced to do the killing. The ill-fated man escapes back to Sudan, where he is tried and sentenced to be hanged. Will he die in the gallows of Sudan, or will he escape his fate? Will he ever see his home again? This story takes you on a vivid journey through the geography, history, and antiquity of the region, up and down the Nile River for a 4700-kilometre trail of the innocent and to the actual parade and shooting of the President. It explores the emotions of the Indians in peril.

Memoirs of a Reluctant Servant Jerome Cabeen, 2011-05-05. Liberia, Africa, was a country that became synonymous for corruption, poverty, and death. Samuel K. Doe and Charles Taylor were warlords that razed a once beautiful land and brought down terror on innocent Liberians. Author Jerome Cabeen stepped off a plane in September of 2008 into the unknown world of West Africa and Liberia. Along with his wife, Clarisa, he had come to the war-torn and desolate country to serve as a Catholic missionary for one year. God had other plans. Memoirs of a Reluctant Servant is a chronicle of the triumphs and sorrows experienced by Cabeen while serving in Liberia. Questions of faith, truth, and self-sacrifice were constant, and sometimes overwhelming obstacles in his path while living in the country. It is a riveting and tragic account of the death and destruction that swept through all parts of Liberia from 1980 until 2003 during two separate civil wars, and what one Catholic mission is doing to rebuild the country and save its children. David Dionisi, founder and President of Teach Peace Foundation, says of the book: "It is a fascinating real-world story about compassion and courage. This is a must-read for any Catholic or person that has empathy for the suffering of others."
