Rescaling municipal governance amidst political competition in Gauteng: Sedibeng's proposed re-demarcation Thembanani Mkhize,2021-08-27 In 2011 the Gauteng Provincial Government proposed that Sedibeng a Category C district municipality located in the province should be restructured Although the original proposal had anticipated that this would happen after the 2016 local elections the issue remains unresolved due largely to fierce party political opposition and vociferous protests against it on the ground This Occasional Paper examines the dynamics particularities peculiarities and challenges of re demarcating the Gauteng City Region While informed by technical reasons the arguments for and against the merger have tended to gravitate more towards party political rationales for why the re demarcation should or should not go ahead Although these debates raise important merits and demerits for the proposal they are difficult to disentangle from the interests of those whose fortunes would be changed by restructuring In this environment municipal demarcation risks being held hostage by party politics with stakeholders such as political parties using any means at their disposal to have things go their way including by scapegoating the Municipal Demarcation Board MDB The case of Sedibeng presents important lessons about attempts to make post transition local government and mechanisms for determining its configuration work for Gauteng It also highlights the need for strengthening and revising demarcation related legislation How can we make sure that the MDB functions effectively with respect to its primary goals

Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret, Carin Runciman, Luke Sinwell, 2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey resistance from below is flourishing Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa's contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology

into the Twentieth Century R.J. Howarth, 2024-12-02 How did geophysics begin Who were the pioneers of this new science What instruments did they devise to measure the Earth related phenomena they were interested in This Memoir attempts to answer such questions in a well illustrated and largely non technical account The seventeenth century saw magnetism used as an aid to prospecting for iron ore in Sweden and Isaac Newton s derivation of the law of gravitational attraction A gradually increasing interest in physics of the Earth brought forth the new discipline of geophysics in the early nineteenth century and by the end of the following century airborne and satellite based investigations had become routine The Emergence of Geophysics explores this evolution in several parallel strands terrestrial magnetism and electricity gravity seismicity heat geodynamics and radioactivity broadly reflecting the timing of their introduction as tools aiding geophysical studies Biographical information is included for many of its practitioners and the book should be of interest to both geophysicists and to anyone interested in the history of Earth science Quaternary Environmental Change in
