Trials and Tribulations in the Postcolonial World* Volkan Ipek, Ebru Ilter-Akarcay, 2020-07-06 This volume a product of the first Tricontinental Conference organized by Yeditepe University Istanbul brings together perspectives on democracy and development in Africa the Middle East and Latin America Representing local voices and insight the contributors here respond to the dearth of comparative analysis on these three regions In spite of the differences observed in colonial practices and postcolonial transitions a shared disenchantment with the performance of competitive politics comes to the forefront in these geographical areas Decades after decolonization low intensity democracy and the continuing potential for democratic reversals and backsliding make the study of these three regions relevant Considering the debates on protests social upheavals activism change and continuity this book encourages the reader to survey the various trials and tribulations of the postcolonial era

The Oxford Handbook of Late Colonial Insurgencies and Counter-Insurgencies Martin Thomas,Gareth Curless,2023 Beginning with Britain s 1948 declaration of a Malayan Emergency and ending with the 1973 withdrawal of US ground troops from Vietnam this Handbook connects ideas about contested decolonization and the insurgencies that inspired it with an analysis of patterns and singularities in the conflicts that precipitated the collapse of overseas empires

Governing in the Shadows Paula Cristina Roque,2021-12-01 Reveals the Angolan state s intrusion into citizens lives in the name of security in stark contrast with governmental neglect in addressing poverty and marginalization

The Archaeology of Southern Africa Peter Mitchell,2024-06-06 Some of humanity s earliest ancestors lived in southern Africa and evidence from sites there has inspired key debates on human origins and the emergence of complex cognition Building on its rich rock art heritage archaeologists have developed theoretical work that continues to influence rock art studies worldwide with the relationship between archaeological and anthropological data central to understanding past hunter gatherer pastoralist and farmer communities alike New work on pre colonial states contests models that previously explained their emergence via external trade while the transformations wrought by European colonialism are being rewritten to emphasise Indigenous agency feeding into efforts to decolonise the discipline itself Inhabited by humans longer than almost anywhere else and with an unusually varied complex past southern Africa thus has much to contribute to archaeology worldwide In this revised and updated edition Peter Mitchell provides a comprehensive and extensively illustrated synthesis of its archaeology over more than three million years

Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson,Judith Ann-Marie Byfield,2017-08 Global Africa will complicate conventional views of Africa as a place of violence despair and victimhood a place and space that other people states and organizations act on and steal from Instead they aim to document some of the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made in the world not just in the United States but in South Asia Latin America Europe and elsewhere They will showcase new framings of Africa but will not romanticize the conditions and circumstances in which too many people on the continent currently live The essays in this volume will amplify those voices that offer complex and insightful explanations strategies for solutions and inspiration for the future Provided by publisher

Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau,2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa's National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Raphaël Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union's structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union's success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa's top post apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history Changing Climates, Ecosystems and Environments within Arid Southern Africa and Adjoining Regions Jürgen Runge, 2015-10-30 This book is volume 33 of the yearbook series Palaeoecology of Africa presenting the outcome of a tribute conference to the internationally recognized South African researcher and palynologist Professor Louis Scott He has recently retired but is continuing his active research career The conference proceedings and articles published here A Dictionary of World History Thomas Edmund Farnsworth Wright, Edmund Wright, 2015 As well as over 4000 clear and concise entries this dictionary also contains biographies of key figures in world history Other useful features include subject entries on religious and political movements maps and full international coverage Farmer's Weekly, 1923 Between Time and Space Sulevi Riukulehto, 2015-05-13 In new regional history national states are not seen to play a special role Regions are understood as evolutionary processes in which time and space history and geography are connected in research questions To illustrate the entanglement of time and space in various forms and ages this volume explores regional history from around the globe The editor's review of the various works written under the heading of regional history serves as an introduction to this theme This volume shows how historical events and changes have influenced the reproduction of regions in Czechia it will also highlight how regional identities were manifested in a cultural form in romantic operas of post Napoleonic Europe The historically rich West Wits Line gold mining region in the West Rand of South Africa is also examined within a regional history framework with the broad theme of ecohealth and well being Through case studies the volume also explores the history of governance and planning in New Zealand's largest city region Auckland as well as the recent economic history of the State of Mato Grosso in Brazil Finally it also brings the idea of regional history to the most personal level of historical consciousness by examining the experiential shaping of home in the broader meaning of Heimat as a question of belonging somewhere both in time and in space The ^AOxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Language Marc Marschark,Patricia Elizabeth Spencer,2015-12-08 Language development and the challenges it can present for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing have long been a focus of research theory and practice in D deaf studies and deaf education Over the past 150 years advances in the acquisition and development of language competencies and skills have been increasing rapidly This volume addresses many of those accomplishments as well as remaining challenges and new questions that have arisen from multiple perspectives theoretical linguistic social emotional neuro biological and socio cultural American Druggists' Circular and Chemical Gazette ,1867 Large Meteorite Impacts and Planetary Evolution VI Wolf Uwe Reimold,Christian Koeberl,2021-09-23 This volume contains a sizable suite of contributions dealing with regional impact records Australia Sweden impact craters and impactites early Archean impacts and geophysical characteristics of impact structures shock metamorphic investigations post impact hydrothermalism and structural geology and morphometry of impact structures on Earth and Mars Termites of the Gods Siyakha Mguni,2015-03-01 Siyakha Mguni s personal journey over many years to discover the significance of a hitherto enigmatic theme in San rock paintings known as formlings In Termites of the Gods Siyakha Mguni narrates his personal journey over many years to discover the significance of a hitherto enigmatic theme in San rock paintings known as formlings Formlings are a painting category found across the southern African region including South Africa Namibia and Zimbabwe with its densest concentration in the Matopo Hills Zimbabwe Generations of archaeologists and anthropologists have wrestled with the meaning of this painting theme in San cosmology without reaching consensus or a plausible explanation Drawing on San ethnography published over the past 150 years Mguni argues that formlings are in fact representations of flying termites and their underground nests and are associated with botanical subjects and a range of larger animals considered by the San to have great power and spiritual significance This book fills a gap in rock art studies around the interpretation and meaning of formlings It offers an innovative methodological approach for understanding subject matter in San rock art that is not easily recognisable and will be an invaluable reference book to students and scholars in rock art studies and archaeology Rivers and Society Malcolm Cooper,Abhik Chakraborty,Shamik Chakraborty,2017-11-22 Rivers and their watersheds constitute some of the most dynamic and complex landscapes Rivers have sustained human communities and human societies have utilized and altered river flows in a number of ways for millennia However the level of human impact on rivers and on watershed environments has become acute during the last hundred years or so This book brings together empirical research and theoretical perspectives on the changing conditions of a range of river basin environments in the contemporary world including the history and culture of local societies living in these river basins It provides theoretical insights on the patterns and nature of the interaction between rivers and their use by human communities The chapters are written from a variety of positions including environmental science hydrology human ecology urban studies water management historical geography cultural anthropology and tourism studies The case studies span different geographical regions providing valuable insight on the multifaceted interactions between rivers and our societies and on the changing riverscapes in different parts of the world Specific detailed examples are included from Australia Brazil France India Iran Japan the Netherlands New Zealand South Africa UK and USA Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
