Val A Man Amongst Men:

Sexuality and Prison Arnaud Gaillard, 2023-06-09 How do the 60 000 people incarcerated in France experience their sexuality If it seems unthinkable today not to care for and feed prisoners it will no doubt seem incomprehensible that the prison of the 21st century has not been able to integrate respect for the right to intimacy as an essential element of human dignity The deprivation and control of sexual relations in prison represents an additional punishment for prisoners and their families who feel the injustice of it all An ambitious study was needed to go beyond stereotypes particularly when it comes to prostitution rape and homosexuality within prison walls In prison it s hard to avoid regression to a solitary pornographic sexuality Marital sexuality is furtive and humiliating stolen from the gaze of prison guards A general situation that runs counter to the State s stated ambitions in terms of rehabilitation and the fight against recidivism This groundbreaking sociological document is also a fascinating human investigation Sixty men and women detained in France were interviewed on a regular basis Testimonies were gathered from several foreign countries The author was also able to interview prison and medical social staff He then questions the nature and use of confinement putting it into perspective with a justice system that is all too often misunderstood Arnaud Gaillard is Secretary General of the Human Rights Alert and Intervention Network RAIDH He is a lawyer and has a doctorate in sociology He is the author of a thesis on sexuality in prison defended at the Sorbonne in 2008 At the end of 2009 he coordinated the 4th World Congress against the Death Penalty work Memorable Deeds and Sayings Pudicitia emerges as a controversial and unsettled topic at the heart of Roman debates about the difference between men and women the relation between mind and body and the ethics of power and status differentiation within Roman culture The book develops strategies for approaching the study of an ancient culture through sensitive critical readings of its literary productions The Life and Public Services of Henry Clay, Down to 1848 Epes Sargent,1852 Stranger at Home Jacob Neusner,2003-09-26 Jacob Neusner the preeminent Judaic scholar who is himself a Jew and a Zionist here explores the issue he believes to be at the very heart of American Judaism how two events remote from the experience of most American Jews have become the twin pillars upon which their world view is built These two events the murder of six million Jews between 1933 and 1945 and the subsequent creation of the State of Israel form what Neusner calls the myth of the Holocaust and redemption Stranger at Home scrutinizes the paradox of a central myth generated out of events never witnessed and a place never inhabited by the majority of American Jewry Written over a period of nearly twenty years these systematically related essays begin with an analysis of the social and psychological problems confronting American Jews The second and third set of studies concern the implications of the two elements that constitute the mythic vision that begins in death the Holocaust and is completed by rebirth Israel Finally the author offers his view of the actual and desirable role of Zionism for the Jewish community outside of Israel Neusner s penetrating exposition sheds light on the search of an American minority culture for identity in the context of freedom and free choice and on the process of adaptation of an archaic religious tradition to modernity American Agriculturist ,1904 The Cold Counsel Sarah M.
