

Welcome Speech for Graduation Ceremony

Good morning everyone. We are gathered here today to celebrate and validate the graduation ceremony of batch 2016. I am Thom Combisen, class first honorable mention, and I am honored to have the opportunity to speak today. First of all on behalf of the entire batch of 2016, I would like to welcome you to the graduation ceremony of batch 2016 at Gotang School. I also want to thank to all parents, family and friends for their love and constant support, as well to the members of Gotang Primary School faculty and staff for their guidance and patience; we truly owe you all that we are. Elementary school has been an unforgettable journey that has prepared us for the future, whatever it may hold. These past 6 years have involved some of the most memorable and influential moments of our lives. Individually, our experiences here are unique, but together we share a common bond as members of the batch 2016 and soon to be the graduates of Gotang Primary School. I am filled with excitement and anticipation as the next stage in my life is about to begin but without the supports of our parents or guardian and our teachers, we may not have made it to this day. They have been there for us since the beginning, guiding us, helping us, and watching us grow. They have witnessed us mature into responsible young adult.

Christianity and the University Experience Mathew Guest, Kristin Aune, Sonya Sharma, Rob Warner, 2013-09-12 What impact does the experience of university have on Christian students Are universities a force for secularisation Is student faith enduring or a passing phase Universities are often associated with a sceptical attitude towards religion Many assume that academic study leads students away from any existing religious convictions heightening the appeal of a rationalist secularism increasingly dominant in wider society And yet Christianity remains highly visible on university campuses and continues to be a prominent identity marker in the lives of many students Analysing over 4 000 responses to a national survey of students and nearly 100 interviews with students and those working with them this book examines Christianity in universities across England It explores the beliefs values and practices of Christian students It reveals how the university experience influences their Christian identities and the influence Christian students have upon university life Christianity and the University Experience makes fascinating reading for anyone interested in the survival and evolution of religion in the contemporary world It offers fresh insights relevant to those working with Christian students including churches chaplaincies and student organisations as well as policy makers and university managers interested in the significance of religion for education social responsibility and social cohesion

Higher Education and Social Mobility in France Shirin Shahrokni, 2020-12-30 This book offers an in depth sociological exploration of the social trajectories and experiences of children of post colonial immigrants in France who are embarking on paths of extreme upward intergenerational mobility The author draws on life history interviews with young adults of North African immigrant background enrolled at or having recently graduated from the country s elite higher education institutions the grandes écoles to delve into largely under researched pathways and give a voice to high achieving members of a population that continues to be collectively associated with difficulties to integrate The volume constitutes the first sociological study to document from the individual actor s perspective the everyday experience of racism within France s elite educational institutions and to reveal the upward mobility experience to be informed by the interlocking effects of racial processes immigrant ancestry class background and gender Challenging the pervasive representation of descendants of North African immigrants as unsuccessful and unable to integrate this book sheds light on the experiences of the largely silent upwardly mobile members of a stigmatized minority group revealing the strategies used to respond to the constraints to their mobility and the importance of familial histories of post colonial migration characterized by the former generation s efforts sacrifices and resilience in informing these success stories
