Stuck Marc Sommers, 2012-02-01 Young people are transforming the global landscape As the human population today is younger and more urban than ever before prospects for achieving adulthood dwindle while urban migration soars Devastated by genocide hailed as a spectacular success and critiqued for its human rights record the Central African nation of Rwanda provides a compelling setting for grasping new challenges to the world s youth Spotighting failed masculinity urban desperation and forceful governance Marc Sommers tells the dramatic story of young Rwandans who are stuck striving against near impossible odds to become adults In Rwandan culture female youth must wait often in vain for male youth to build a house before they can marry Only then can male and female youth gain acceptance as adults However Rwanda s severe housing crisis means that most male youth are on a treadmill toward failure unable to build their house yet having no choice but to try What follows is too often tragic Rural youth face a future as failed adults while many who migrate to the capital fail to secure a stable life and turn fatalistic about contracting HIV AIDS Featuring insightful interviews with youth adults and government officials Stuck tells the story of an ambitious controlling government trying to govern an exceptionally young and poor population in a densely populated and rapidly urbanizing country This pioneering book sheds new light on the struggle to come of age and suggests new pathways toward the attainment of security development and coexistence in Africa and beyond Published in association with the United States Institute of Peace

Disability in the Global Sport Arena Jill M. Le Clair, 2013-09-13 Sport is often at the centre of battles for rights to inclusion linked to class race and gender and this book explores struggles centred on disability in different cultural settings in Europe North America Africa Asia and Oceania It challenges oversights and assumptions about the normal body and describes how individual and organizational transformations can occur through sport The abilities of a person are recognised and placed centre stage instead of the individual being forgotten excluded or placed at the margins simply because they have a disability National regional and global change is part of the shift to the rights based approach reflected in the 2006 UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Making sport inclusive affects the accessibility of facilities funding the media policies programs organisations sponsors and spectators and at the same time changes the cultural values of the wider society It also raises issues about competition access and eligibility for different and technologically enhanced cyborg bodies and for those most socially disadvantaged Addressing these questions which ultimately touch on the real meaning of sport can lead to profound changes in people s attitudes and how sport is organized locally and globally Growth in the influential global organisations of the Paralympic Games Special Olympics and Deaflympics is examined as is the approach to disability in sport in both advantaged and resource poor countries The embodied lives of persons with disabilities are explored utilizing new theoretical models perspectives and approaches This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society Dental Teamwork ,1990 Sports Marketing Sam Fullerton,2021-10-15 Formerly published by Chicago Business Press now published by Sage Sports Marketing Fourth Edition guides students in gaining a better understanding of how to develop and implement marketing strategies and tactics within the sports marketing industry Author Sam Fullerton provides thorough coverage of this discipline s two broad perspectives the marketing of sports products and creating a sports platform as the foundation for the marketing of nonsports products
