Quicklet on West with the Night by Beryl Markham (CliffNotes-like Summary) Laura Brestovansky,2012-02-24 ABOUT THE BOOK I ve always been interested in women in history particularly those of the 20th century Somehow though I had never heard of Beryl Markham until I came across her book West With the Night about a year or so ago The cover s engaging portrait of Markham looking patrician and quite beautiful in her aviator helmet immediately drew my attention As I began to read the account of her life I was quickly hooked by her fascinating description of life in British East Africa today known as Kenya in the early 1900s Imagine taking off in a two seater plane and narrowly avoiding a zebra My impression was confirmed the more I read Markham was clearly a woman who lived in a completely different world than I do in 21st century America She bred championship racehorses She flew planes into remote parts of Africa And she managed to write about it without a hint of boasting Her writing is simple and honest No less a writer than Ernest Hemingway a friend of Markham s praised the book as bloody wonderful in a letter to Maxwell Perkins as cited on the back cover of the 1983 edition of West with the Night Markham s account showed me that life is meant to be lived to the full Taking risks and trying new things is what gives life its savor Telling other s about one s adventures allows them to savor them too MEET THE AUTHOR Laura

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK West With the Night is Beryl Markham s memoir of her life in British East Africa Kenya She was a racehorse breeder bush pilot and the first woman to fly across the Atlantic from east to west The book begins with Markham s review of an old flight logbook which sets the scene for the entire book British East Africa in the 1930s Once setting the scene she recounts her journey to deliver oxygen to a sick minor a job to be done at an uncomfortable hour with sleep in my eyes and a half a grumble on my lips While the flight itself is routine Markham flies with the knowledge that a friend and fellow pilot is missing in the Serengeti

West with the Night Beryl Markham,1984 Beryl Markham moved to Kenya with her father at the age of four and stayed until her death in 1986 Her incredible autobiography describes the Africa she learnt to love her childhood surrounded by the tribal people her tangles often nearly fatal with its wild animals and her passions for racehorses and aeroplanes Markham achieved notoriety and success as a horse trainer when one of her horses won the most prestigious race in Kenya She turned her hand to aeroplanes with Denys Finch Hatton the lover of Karen Blixen as a teacher and became the first woman in Kenya to receive a commercial pilot s licence Her adventures and courageous career as a bush pilot are recounted in vivid detail here along with the richness and fascination of life in Kenya in the twenties and thirties
