Essays on the Patriarchal Narratives A. R. Millard, D. J. Wiseman, 2008-05-07 Today there is renewed interest in the history and traditions of the patriarchal period. Recent publications have sought among other things to show that the biblical patriarchs were a literary even fictional creation of the first millennium BC produced to provide the nation of Israel which came into prominence only then with founding fathers. Much of this new writing is helpful in distinguishing what are traditional or speculative interpretations from the basic texts of Genesis. Sometimes archaeological evidence has been adduced in support of the historicity of the patriarchs and their cultural background in the second millennium BC which can no longer be sustained. Sometimes however the value of such evidence is ignored or belittled from the preface.

Folk Epics of Rajasthan: An Ecological Study of Pabuji and Devnarayan Dr. Meenakshi, 2024-06-30 The book attempts to trace ecological insights embedded in two major folk epics of Rajasthan: Epic of Pabuji and Epic of Devnarayan. The first chapter explores man's relation with nature in the past and attempts to locate the genesis of our attitudes towards nature in ancient myths as well as its portrayal in literature. It tries to define ecology and summarises the ideas about ecological literary criticism given by various critics. It highlights the tradition and types of oral epics in Rajasthan. The second chapter, named Cultural Ecology, focuses on the mutuality and interdependence of nature and culture. It reflects upon what effects human culture has on nature and vice versa in context of the epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan. The chapter focuses on literary ecology which explores the ecological dimensions of literary texts and also puts forth the artistic capability of the text as an agency of ecological awareness. The third chapter, named History, Aesthetics and Phad, explores how painters make phad and to what purpose these phads are made, what purposes of bhopas and commercial consumers it fulfils and in what ways bhopas inspire the process. It also discusses the history of visual narratives and locates the place of phad in it. It delves deep into the history of phad tradition of painting as well as its aesthetics. The discussion of aesthetics of phad foregrounds how phad helps bhopa in devising as well as improvising the narrative. The fourth chapter, named Performance and Ecology, focuses on how performances of folk epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan further an ecological vision in which natural surroundings play a contributory role in formation of meanings An interconnection between the ecology of the region and the performance of phad has been evaluated which contributes in comprehending the full ecological implications of phad An analysis of both the epics from an ecological literary perspective substantiates the excellence and contribution of the epics in enriching the literary genre with different aspects of ecological connections between man and other natural elements on earth The book establishes that the literary ecology of phad is as diverse as an ecosystem The ecology of phad thrives on cultural diversity including people from all fields such as phad painters phad performers and the audience followers of the deities This correlation is based not only on their economic relations or transactions but they also depend upon each other for their exclusive identity Gospel Essays Mark C. O Woman, Great is Your Faith! Douglas Sean O'Donnell, 2021-08-26 The concept of faith holds a central position in New Testament and early Christian thought yet this concept has not received the careful attention it deserves in the Synoptic Gospels The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel's vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus The argument propounded is that Matthew's unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman's faith 15:21-28 is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus's quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith She embodies Matthew's theological vision of faith Even though she is a gentile outsider enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus's mission Moreover she acknowledges Jesus's messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David's royal heir and David's Lord Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action
