Skeletons At The Feast:

Skeletons at the Feast Chris Bohjalian, 2009-04-06 In January 1945 in the waning months of World War II a small group of people begin the longest journey of their lives an attempt to cross the remnants of the Third Reich to reach the British and American lines Among the group is 18 year old Anna Emmerich the daughter of Prussian aristocrats There is her lover Callum Finnella a young Scottish prisoner of war who has been brought from the stalag to her family's farm as forced labour And there is the intriguing Wehrmacht corporal whom the pair know as Manfred who is in reality Uri Singer a Jew from Germany who managed a daring escape from a train bound for Auschwitz As they work their way west they encounter a countryside ravaged by war Their flight will test both Anna's and Callum's love as well as their friendship with Manfred assuming any of them even survive Skilfully capturing the flesh and blood of history Bohjalian has crafted a rich tapestry that puts a face on one of the 20th century's greatest tragedies while creating a masterpiece that will haunt readers for generations
