The Odyssey of an African Slave Sitiki, 2009-09-27 Recently discovered as a hand written document in the Buckingham Smith Collection at the New York Historical Society this remarkable first person narrative traces the life of Sitiki whose name was changed to Jack Smith after his enslavement in America Captured and sold into slavery in Africa as a five year old Sitiki traveled to America as a cabin boy Eventually sold by the ship s captain to Josiah Smith of Savannah Georgia he lived there and in Connecticut with his new master Captured by the British during the War of 1812 he was returned to the Smiths to be freed only after the Civil War He went on to become the first black Methodist minister in St Augustine Florida where he established his own church Patricia Griffin does not leave the story at the conclusion of the slave narrative but explores Sitiki s experiences and places them in clear and valuable context She presents the narrative unencumbered allowing Sitiki s authority compassion and personality to speak for itself

Ways of the World Laura J. Rosenthal, 2020-11-15 Ways of the World explores cosmopolitanism as it emerged during the Restoration and the role theater played in both memorializing and satirizing its implications and consequences Rooted in the Stuart ambition to raise the status of England through two crucial investments global traffic including the slave trade and cultural sophistication this intensified global orientation led to the creation of global mercantile networks and to the rise of an urban British elite who drank Ethiopian coffee out of Asian porcelain at Ottoman inspired coffeehouses Restoration drama exposed cosmopolitanism's most embarrassing and troubling aspects with such writers as Joseph Addison Aphra Behn John Dryden and William Wycherley dramatizing the emotional and ethical dilemmas that imperial and commercial expansion brought to light Altering standard narratives about Restoration drama Laura J Rosenthal shows how the reinvention of theater in this period including technical innovations and the introduction of female performers helped make possible performances that held the actions of the nation up for scrutiny simultaneously indulging and ridiculing the violence and exploitation being perpetuated In doing so Ways of the World reveals an otherwise elusive consistency between Restoration genres comedy tragedy heroic plays and tragicomedy disrupts conventional understandings of the rise and reception of early capitalism and offers a fresh perspective on theatrical culture in the context of the shifting political realities of seventeenth and eighteenth century Britain

Slave Traders by Invitation Finn Fuglestad, 2018-07-01 The Slave Coast situated in what is now the West African state of Benin was the epicentre of the Atlantic Slave Trade But it was also an inhospitable surf ridden coastline subject to crashing breakers and devoid of permanent human settlement Nor was it easily accessible from the interior due to a lagoon which ran parallel to the coast The local inhabitants were not only sheltered against incursions from the sea but were also locked off from it Yet paradoxically it was this coastline that witnessed a thriving long term commercial relation ship between

Europeans and Africans based on the trans Atlantic slave trade How did it come about How was it all organised And how did the locals react to the opportunities these new trading relations offered them The Kingdom of Dahomey is usually cited as the Slave Coast s archetypical slave raiding and slave trading polity An inland realm it was a latecomer to the slave trade and simply incorporated a pre existing system by dint of military prowess which ultimately was to prove radically counterproductive Fuglestad s book seeks to explain the Dahomean anomaly and its impact on the Slave Coast s societies and polities Historical Manuscripts Heritage Auction Galleries (Dallas, Tex.),2008
