

Captain Planet Foundation Grant Application Form

An important goal of the Captain Planet Foundation is to collect and disseminate information about best practices and successful projects. This information is gathered and posted on our website so CPF can help schools and organizations learn from the experience of CPF grantees. (CPF contacts grantees during implementation of the project to obtain updates on the progress of the project.)

Application Checklist

Prior to submitting an application confirm that you have provided all required information.

☐

Completed all parts of the application.

Provided a signed and dated letter from the school principal, school district office, or executive of the organization that:

- specifies that the Project Leader/Director has the authority to implement this CPF-funded project.
- states permission and release for the Captain Planet Foundation to use any grantee photo, video or website material for CPF's promotional activities, including project plans, materials developed during the project, and reported results.

Organizations with 501 (c)(3) status must have included a copy of their Internal Revenue Service "Determination Letter."

Incomplete applications will not be considered for funding. Due to limited staffing CPF is unable to contact applicants to request missing information.
