Language Policies and (Dis)Citizenship Vaidehi Ramanathan, 2013-08-07 This volume explores the concept of citizenship and argues that it should be understood both as a process of becoming and the ability to participate fully rather than as a status that can be inherited acquired or achieved From a courtroom in Bulawayo to a nursery in Birmingham the authors use local contexts to foreground how the vulnerable particularly those from minority language backgrounds continue to be excluded whilst offering a powerful demonstration of the potential for change offered by individual agency resistance and struggle In addressing questions such as under what local conditions does dis citizenship happen what role do language policies and pedagogic practices play and what kinds of margins and borders keep humans from fully participating The chapters in this volume shift the debate away from visas and passports to more uncertain and contested spaces of interpretation

Indians on Indian Lands Nishant Upadhyay, 2024-10-08 Winner of a NWSA University of Illinois Press First Book Prize Nishant Upadhyay unravels Indian diasporic complicity in its ongoing colonialist relationship with Indigenous peoples lands and nations in Canada Upadhyay examines the interwoven and simultaneous areas of dominant Indian caste complicity in processes of settler colonialism antiblackness capitalism brahminical supremacy Hindu nationalism and heteropatriarchy Resource extraction in British Columbia in the 1970s 90s and in present day Alberta offer examples of spaces that illuminate the dispossession of Indigenous peoples and simultaneously reveal racialized gendered and caste labor formations Upadhyay juxtaposes these extraction sites with examples of anticolonial activism and solidarities from Tkaronto Analyzing silence on settler colonialism and brahminical caste supremacy Upadhyay upends the idea of dominant caste Indian diasporas as racially victimized and shows that claiming victimhood denies a very real complicity in enforcing other power structures Exploring stories of quotidian proximity and intimacy between Indigenous and South Asian communities Upadhyay offers meditations on anticolonial and anti casteist ways of knowledge production ethical relationalities and solidarities Groundbreaking and ambitious Indians on Indian Lands presents the case for holding Indian diasporas accountable for acts of violence within a colonial settler nation

Say you'll Wait for Me, A Memoir Samantha Rosalia, 2023-11-09 Being the owner of vast stretches of land in certain areas of Pakistan meant you could marry the most beautiful girl of any nearby village a devout Muslim woman from an affluent family born of a traditional Hindu caste and the eldest daughter of a neighboring landlord Looking back in writing this now I think about all the people who were supposed to care about me who had bad intentions related to why they claimed to welcome me as an American never bothering to fill me in as to the reasons why I traveled to Pakistan I found myself in a strange new land left to raise Sameer and Asad without a father Thrust into a world of strangers disguised as well meaning relatives extending a hand to greet me as a foreigner from the United States I found myself standing in the middle of a deserted field trying not to see Daniyal in new relatives offering flowers and Muslim prayers of protection in Urdu I was no longer called by my birth name Samantha but morphed into a Pakistani woman known only by my Muslim name Kasra Say You ll Wait for Me is my first book based on a true to life experience of meeting and marrying an immigrant from a rural village area of Ganish Pakistan As I struggle to fit in with a large eccentric joint family as a foreigner from Louisiana who knows next to nothing about Pakistani customs haphazard attempts at blending in with my Muslim family turn into a series of cultural blunders and missteps Secretive in laws appear as well meaning family members offering Muslim prayers revealing a series of family betrayals and secrets surrounding an ongoing legal case in Karachi Pakistan involving the acquisition of ancestral property A territorial dispute in Karachi Pakistan spirals out of control in the form of an ongoing family feud What remains of my time in a rural village area of Ganish is a true story comprised of people who lied to me and a broken promise of a happy life in a foreign country that existed in a past memory The beginning of our financial issues began more than five years ago over a valuable piece of property in Karachi The most tragic part of my real life experience about marrying a Pakistani wasn t that years later I had come to find out my immigrant husband s ancestral land had been stolen from him and he could no longer return to his birth country I prayed for the land to be returned to its rightful owner Say You ll Wait for Me

Vassanji, 2025-09-02 From one of Canada s most celebrated writers two time Giller Prize winner M G Vassanji comes a thoughtful meditation on what it means to belong in the world Shortlisted for the Writers Trust Balsillie Prize for Public Policy Home is never a single place entirely and unequivocally It is contingent The abstract nowhere then is the true home M G Vassanji has been exploring identity and belonging for over three decades drawing on his own eclectic upbringing and intimate understanding of the unique challenges and perspectives born from leaving one's home and settling in a new land. The question of how to configure and see oneself within this new land and within the larger world that's opened up is a constant nagging challenge. In today's world, possessing multiple identities has become a commonplace concept. But what does it mean to truly belong to a place, a community, a faith, a history? Can we ever belong in our new home? Did we ever belong in the home we left? Where exactly do we belong? For many, the answer is nowhere exactly. Combining brilliant prose, thoughtful, candid observation, and a lifetime of exploring how we as individuals are shaped by the places and communities in which we have lived and the histories that haunt them, Nowhere Exactly examines with exquisite sensitivity the space between identity and belonging, the immigrant or exile's experience of both loss and gain, and the weight of memory and nostalgia and of guilt and hope felt by so many of those who leave their homes in search of new ones for one reason or another.

U.S. Citizenship Study Guide - Hindi Jeffrey B. Harris, 2016-06-16

This is a Hindi-English study guide for the civics portion of the United States naturalization test. It contains 100 questions you need to know to pass the exam (2017 update). The Forging of Races Colin Kidd, 2006-09-07. This book revolutionises our understanding of race. Building upon the insight that races are products of culture rather than biology, Colin Kidd demonstrates that the Bible, the key text in Western culture, has left a vivid imprint on modern racial theories and prejudices. Fixing his attention on the changing relationship between race and theology in the Protestant Atlantic world between 1600 and 2000, Kidd shows that while the Bible itself is colour-blind, its interpreters have imported racial significance into the scriptures. Kidd's study probes the theological anxieties which lurked behind the confident facade of white racial supremacy in the age of empire and race slavery, as well as the ways in which racist ideas left their mark upon new forms of religiosity. This is essential reading for anyone interested in the histories of race or religion.

Migration and Transformation: Pirkko Pitkänen, Ahmet İçduygu, Deniz Sert, 2012-04-14

People's transnational ties and activities are acquiring ever greater importance and topicality in today's world. The focus of this book lies in the complex and multi level processes of migrant transnationalism in four transnational spaces India UK Morocco France and Turkey Germany and Estonia Finland The main question is how people s activities across national borders emerge function and change and how are they related to the processes of governance in increasingly complex and interconnected world The book is based on the findings of a three year research project TRANS NET which brought together internationally acknowledged experts from Europe Asia and Africa As no single discipline could investigate all the components of the topic in question the project adopted a multi disciplinary approach among the contributors there are sociologists policy analysts political scientists social and cultural anthropologists educational scientists and economists The chapters show that people s transnational linkages and migration across national boundaries entail manifold political economic social cultural and educational implications Although political social economic educational transformations fostered by migrant transnationalism constitute the main topic of the book the starting assumption is that the large scale institutional and actor centred patterns of transformation come about through a constellation of parallel processes
