Managing Health Sciences Libraries in a Time of Change Claire B. Joseph, Priscilla L. Stephenson, 2024-01-26 Selected as a 2025 Doody s Core Title In Managing Health Sciences Libraries in a Time of Change experienced leaders of the medical library community present insights into the current trends and issues faced by health sciences librarians and offer practical guidelines and management skills needed to create a culture of excellence The Medical Library Association points out that Management skills and a leader s abilities affect the culture and performance of coworkers and the effectiveness of an institution The last decades have resulted in a sea change for health sciences library leadership and management In a short period of time medical libraries have transformed from collections of print books and journals to databases of digital resources accessible from any desktop Library services no longer must be provided face to face but the need for virtual library services has grown in complexity and now demands a greater knowledge of technology and informatics Reference service instruction cataloging and collection development all remain as key library tasks but they have been transformed in this digital environment This book explores what it means to be a manager of health sciences libraries today Chapters focus on current trends in health science library leadership managing change staffing issues managing for diversity equity and inclusion mentoring accreditation and evaluation leadership skills and a discussion of the differences between the concepts of leadership and management      School Libraries in a Time of Change Kathleen W. Craver,2019-08-01 By becoming practical futurists school librarians can help their libraries not only to survive sweeping changes in education but to thrive This book shows how to spot technological trends and use them to your library s advantage During this time of rapid modernization of technology and educational reform this book is a must read for school librarians tasked with ensuring their libraries meet evolving standards This title provides the research and organizational techniques and skills they need to gain seats at the table of the three power committees technology curricula and strategic planning School librarians need to collect and publicize national and local school based evidence that shows the positive correlations between school librarians and student achievement Craver notes correlative sources and provides ideas to employ them to ensure that school librarians remain indispensable In addition acquiring technological skills and becoming expert at their application are paramount for librarians Even more important is the need for librarians to assume sole responsibility for designing and integrating information literacy and critical thinking skills throughout the curriculum Craver analyzes studies that show students inability to discern fact from fiction ads from news and information bias in electronic information sources and recommends six actions that school librarians take to ensure that they become active participants in their future rather than its victims      International Students and Academic Libraries Pamela A. Jackson,Patrick Sullivan,2011 The case studies describe projects that support the success of international students studying at academic institutions and provide examples of strategies for librarians to encourage library use among international students and increase international student success      Peer-Assisted Learning in Academic Libraries Erin Rinto,John Watts,Rosan Mitola,2017-07-05 Written specifically for academic librarians and library administrators this book identifies the myriad benefits of peer assisted learning exploring how the implementation of peer assisted learning benefits information literacy instruction cocurricular outreach and reference services In this era of accountability and stretched budgets in higher education librarians need to make instructional programming both highly effective and sustainable Peer assisted learning is a methodology that has long been accepted in teaching but is relatively new as applied to academic library instruction outreach and reference This book brings together the most innovative applications of peer assisted learning in these contexts explaining specific ways to apply peer assisted learning in a variety of academic library settings for maximum benefit This guidebook begins with an extensive literature review of the theoretical underpinnings of peer assisted learning and the various benefits these programs can provide academic librarians and peer mentors The bulk of the book s content is organized into three sections that address the subjects of information literacy instruction cocurricular outreach and reference services separately Each section showcases real world examples of peer assisted learning at a variety of academic institutions Through these case studies readers can fully understand the development implementation and assessment of a peer assisted learning program and librarians and administrators will see the practical benefits of enriching the experiences of student employees Practitioners will receive inspiration and guidance through chapters that discuss training activities identify lessons learned and explain the implications for further research     Recruitment, Development, and Retention of Information Professionals: Trends in Human Resources and Knowledge Management Pankl, Elisabeth, Theiss-White, Danielle, Bushing, Mary C., 2010-02-28 This book offers disparate yet important perspectives of various information professionals pertaining to recruitment retention and career development of individuals within organizations Provided by publisher     Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science, Second Edition - Miriam Drake, 2003-05-20 A revitalized version of the popular classic the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Second Edition targets new and dynamic movements in the distribution acquisition and development of print and online media compiling articles from more than 450 information specialists on topics including program planning in the digital era recruitment information management advances in digital technology and encoding intellectual property and hardware software database selection and design competitive intelligence electronic records preservation decision support systems ethical issues in information online library instruction telecommuting and digital library projects     Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, Jay E.
