Meeting the Challenges to Measurement in an Era of Accountability Henry Braun, 2016-01-29 Under pressure and support from the federal government states have increasingly turned to indicators based on student test scores to evaluate teachers and schools as well as students themselves The focus thus far has been on test scores in those subject areas where there is a sequence of consecutive tests such as in mathematics or English language arts with a focus on grades 4-8 Teachers in these subject areas however constitute less than thirty percent of the teacher workforce in a district Comparatively little has been written about the measurement of achievement in the other grades and subjects This volume seeks to remedy this imbalance by focusing on the assessment of student achievement in a broad range of grade levels and subject areas with particular attention to their use in the evaluation of teachers and schools in all It addresses traditional end of course tests as well as alternative measures such as portfolios exhibitions and student learning objectives In each case issues related to design and development psychometric considerations and validity challenges are covered from both a generic and a content specific perspective The NCME Applications of Educational Measurement and Assessment series includes edited volumes designed to inform research based applications of educational measurement and assessment Edited by leading experts these books are comprehensive and practical resources on the latest developments in the field The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Antoncic,Robert D. Hisrich,2023-06-07 How to End the Reading War and Serve the Literacy Needs of All Students P. L. Thomas,2020-06-01 The twenty first century Reading War is in fact nothing new but some of the details are unique to our current culture driven by social media This volume seeks to examine the current Reading War in the context of the historical recurrence of public and political debates around student reading abilities and achievement Grounded in a media fascination with the science of reading and fueled by a rise in advocates for students with dyslexia the current Reading War has resulted in some deeply troubling reading policy grade retention and intensive phonics programs This primer for parents policy makers and people who care confronts some of the most compelling but misunderstood aspects of teaching reading in the U

S while also offering a way toward ending the Reading War in order to serve all students regardless of their needs

International Handbook of Research in History, Philosophy and Science Teaching Michael R. Matthews,2014-07-03 This inaugural handbook documents the distinctive research field that utilizes history and philosophy in investigation of theoretical curricular and pedagogical issues in the teaching of science and mathematics It is contributed to by 130 researchers from 30 countries it provides a logically structured fully referenced guide to the ways in which science and mathematics education is informed by the history and philosophy of these disciplines as well as by the philosophy of education more generally The first handbook to cover the field it lays down a much needed marker of progress to date and provides a platform for informed and coherent future analysis and research of the subject The publication comes at a time of heightened worldwide concern over the standard of science and mathematics education attended by fierce debate over how best to reform curricula and enliven student engagement in the subjects There is a growing recognition among educators and policy makers that the learning of science must dovetail with learning about science this handbook is uniquely positioned as a locus for the discussion The handbook features sections on pedagogical theoretical national and biographical research setting the literature of each tradition in its historical context It reminds readers at a crucial juncture that there has been a long and rich tradition of historical and philosophical engagements with science and mathematics teaching and that lessons can be learnt from these engagements for the resolution of current theoretical curricular and pedagogical questions that face teachers and administrators Science educators will be grateful for this unique encyclopaedic handbook Gerald Holton Physics Department Harvard University This handbook gathers the fruits of over thirty years research by a growing international and cosmopolitan community Fabio Bevilacqua Physics Department University of Pavia Knowing Her Place Valerie Bevan,Caroline Gatrell,2017-12-29 More women are studying science at university and they consistently outperform men Yet still significantly fewer women than men hold prestigious jobs in science Why should this occur What prevents women from achieving as highly as men in science And why are so few women positioned as creative genius research scientists Drawing upon the views of 47 female and male scientists Bevan and Gatrell explore why women are less likely than men to become eminent in their profession They observe three mechanisms which perpetuate women's lowered place in science subtle masculinities whereby certain forms of masculinity are valued over womanhood motherhood in which women's potential for maternity positions them as other and the image of creative genius which is associated with male bodies excluding women from research roles Youth and Inequality in Education Michael Heathfield,Dana Fusco,2015-07-30 The transition to adulthood for many is mediated by class culture and local global influences on identity This volume analyzes the global injustices that create inequities and restrict future opportunities for young people during this transitional time including poverty unemployment human rights race ethnicity and location It critically examines global instances of youth discrimination offering positive strategies and practices such as youth work that successfully remediate these injustices With international contributions from Aotearoa New Zealand Australia England Malaysia Peru Philippines Portugal Morocco Jordan and the U S this volume is particularly important to researchers and scholars in the fields of youth studies education and social work Research and Discussions in Critical Discourses and Remedies in Global Health Education Ashti A. Doobay-Persaud, Tracy L. Rabin, Tomlin Paul, Jessica Evert, Benedicta Ayiedu Mensah, 2024-10-01 Global Health a field of study research and practice defined in 2009 with precursors in international health and development is currently reckoning with itself The field has well intended goals emphasizing collaboration and dialogue between population health public health clinical care and other disciplines to address socioeconomic determinants of health and employing interdisciplinary approaches to address health inequities wherever they exist Despite these lofty ideals there are concerns that the field itself has historically served to reinforce rather than deconstruct colonialism and power imbalances At this point in time the field has evolved toward a vision of a community of practice between institutions across the income spectrum HIC LMIC LIC working in bidirectional and multidirectional ways to develop staff staff space systems and strategies to eliminate health disparities However with deeply rooted colonial assumptions racism elitism and other forms of bias underlying institutions and individuals initiatives operating under the auspices of Global Health are all too often antithetical to the pursuit itself The Times Index, 2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements Cancer Health Equity Research, 2020-03-30 Cancer Health Equity Research Volume 146 in the Advances in Cancer Research series highlights new advances in the field with this new volume presenting interesting chapters on a variety of timely topics including Pubertal Mammary Development as a Susceptibility Window for Breast Cancer Disparity Review of Patient Navigation Interventions to Address Barriers to Participation in Cancer Clinical Trials Racial Disparities in Ovarian Cancer Research Mighty Men A Faith Based Weight Loss Intervention to Reduce Cancer Risk in African American Men Design of a Patient Navigation Intervention to Increase Rates of Surgery among African Americans with Early Stage Lung Cancer and much Provides the authority and expertise of leading contributors from an international board of authors Presents the latest release in the Advances in Cancer Research series Updated release includes the latest information on the Cancer Health Equity Research Global Health Security Anthony J. Masys, Ricardo Izurieta, Miguel Reina Ortiz, 2020-01-01 With our highly connected and interdependent world the growing threat of infectious diseases and public health crisis has shed light on the requirement for global efforts to manage and combat highly pathogenic infectious diseases and other public health crisis on an unprecedented level Such disease threats transcend borders Reducing global threats posed by infectious disease outbreaks whether naturally caused or resulting from a deliberate or accidental release requires efforts that cross the disaster management pillars mitigation preparedness response and recovery This book addresses the issues of global health security along 4 themes Emerging Threats Mitigation Preparedness Response and Recovery Exploring the Technology Landscape for Solutions Leadership and Partnership The authors of this volume highlight many of the challenges that
