

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a wide, paved road or path that stretches into the distance. On the left side of the path, there is a line of trees and bushes. In the background, there are rolling hills or mountains with patches of green and brown, suggesting a natural, possibly rural or semi-rural, setting. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

Urban Revolutions Stefan Kipfer, 2022-09-19 What do struggles over pipelines in Canada housing estates in France and shantytowns in Martinique have in common In Urban Revolutions Stefan Kipfer shows how these struggles force us to understand the neo colonial aspects of capitalist urbanization in a comparatively and historically nuanced fashion In so doing he demonstrates that urban research

Skateboarding and the City Iain Borden, 2019-02-21. Skateboarding is both a sport and a way of life. Creative, physical, graphic, urban, and controversial, it is full of contradictions: a billion-dollar global industry which still retains its vibrant counter-cultural heart. Skateboarding and the City presents the only complete history of the sport, exploring the story of skate culture from the surf beaches of 60s California to the latest developments in street skating today. Written by a life-long skater who also happens to be an architectural historian and packed through with full-colour images of skaters, boards, moves, graphics, and film stills, this passionate, readable, and rigorously researched book explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way.

Critique of Urbanization Neil Brenner, 2016-12-05. Urbanization is transforming the planet within and beyond cities at all spatial scales. In this book, Neil Brenner mobilizes the tools of critical urban theory to deconstruct some of the dominant urban discourses of our time which naturalize and thus depoliticize the enclosures, exclusions, injustices, and irrationalities of neoliberal urbanism. In so doing, Brenner advocates a constant reinvention of the framing categories, methods, and assumptions of critical urban theory in relation to the rapidly mutating geographies of capitalist urbanization. Only a theory that is dynamic, which is constantly being transformed in relation to the restlessly evolving social worlds and territorial landscapes, it aspires to grasp, can be a genuinely critical theory.
