Image of Istanbul, Impact of ECOC 2010 on the City Image Evinc Dogan, 2016-07-31 Istanbul took the stage as one of the three European Capital of Culture ECoC cities in 2010 In this spectacle the urban spaces were projected as the theatre d cor while residents and visitors became the spectators The images of Istanbul pile up in videos and posters to show the city in every aspect in which everything becomes mishmash and the message gets lost in the chaos While Istanbul is depicted as a mystified city through Orientalist representations this image of Istanbul moves between the opposite ends of the contrasting pairs and in contestation Culture defined as making sense of the world Hall 1997 2 is an integral part of branding a place which involves cultural exchange Anholt 2005 140 Mega events may be used as forms of advertising for city marketing and branding where the signification is not only about production of meaning but also staging of the meaning The cities hosting mega events can be turned into the protagonists of the spectacle by showcasing their cultural products as well as cultural being Thus what staged there are the city its image as well as the events The mega events are helpful to spread the word about the city but the meaning is created also through imaging the city and positioning this image in the minds of the people

Urban Constellations Zoë Thompson,2016-02-11 This book investigates the iconic architectural cultural spaces of the contemporary cityscape as engines of regeneration Promising much to their fading locales these spaces locate culture in the space where production once ruled in order to revitalise post industrial urban provinces With close attention to four sites across the UK Urban Constellations engages with the work of Walter Benjamin and Jean Baudrillard to read these spaces and in so doing offer a critical intervention into the theory and experience of contemporary cityscapes Developing the notion of surface ethnography as a methodological approach to examining the form of cultural experience produced by urban cultural spaces the author sheds light on the manner in which they transform cultural spectatorship express wider political and ecological concerns and offer differing views to the native and the tourist in the construction of local history The book also examines the decline of the idea that iconic projects can drive regeneration in the failures and delays that can beset such undertakings Offering a rich examination of the legacy of urban change in its most recent formulation that of cultural regeneration this book reveals the fragile potential of the spaces produced by contemporary dream houses and as such will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies sociology and social theory urban studies cultural geography and architecture

Ideologies and Infrastructures of Religious Urbanization in Africa

David Garbin, Simon Coleman, Gareth Millington, 2022-11-17 How do urbanization and development intersect with religious dynamics to shape contemporary African cityscapes To answer this timely question contributors from across Europe North America and Africa are brought together to explore mega cities including Lagos Cape Town Dar es Salaam and Kinshasa as powerful venues for the creation and implementation of religious models of urbanization and development This book interrogates how religious socio spatial models and strategies engage with challenges of infrastructural development urban social cohesion inequalities and inclusion Chapters explore how faith based practices of urban and infrastructural development link moral subjectivities with individual and wider aspirations for modernization change deliverance and prosperity The volume brings together ethnographically rich and theoretically grounded case studies of religious urbanization across the African continent It advances discussions of the ambivalent role of urban religion in development and documents the complex multifaceted socio cultural and political dynamics associated with religious urbanization in Africa
