Where do you live?

The 5 W's of Voting

Who?	Anyone who is a US citizen and 18 years or older can vote in an election.
What?	Citizens vote for the people who will represent them in government. People choose the candidate that has the same ideas or opinions as they do.
Why?	Voting is very important. Citizens vote to have a voice in their government. Every vote counts.
Where?	Citizens vote in public places like schools and libraries. Each person is assigned a location to cast their vote.
When?	City, state and national elections are held every two - four years. The election for the President is every four years.
