

WRITING-STYLE GUIDE AND PREFERRED USAGE FOR DAD DOCUMENTS

1. ORIGINAL PRINCIPLES. Write your documents clearly and correctly, applying the following general principles of effective writing:

a. When drafting your document, use an outline. This will help you organize your document and keep it focused and on track.

b. Use short, simple words. Limit sentences to one thought and keep them brief (an average of 20 or fewer words).

c. Use the correct words. (See Appendix 1 for a glossary of preferred usage and Appendix 2 for a list of hypothetical conditions used in DAD documents.)

d. Write in the active voice (active voice means you are an actor with the action being taken immediately after the noun. (See Figure 1 for characterization and examples.))

e. Use parallel constructions (the same grammatical structure for similar or related ideas). (See Figure 2 for examples.)

f. Avoid long, rambling paragraphs. If a paragraph is longer than 20 lines, it should probably be constructed as multiple subparagraphs.

g. Organize the material. When the document template doesn't provide a specific structure, organize sections, enclosures, and appendices so that earlier paragraphs serve as reader later paragraphs close. When possible, use paragraph headings to highlight important concepts so the reader can see at a glance what the paragraph is about.
