Conducting Psychological Assessments for U.S. Immigration Cases Robert S. Meyers, 2020-09-15 This book focuses on the psychologist's role in assessing immigration cases and serving as an expert witness in these situations. It provides extensive background information on the history of immigration law in the U.S. and the legal precedents that establish professional qualifications for testifying in court covering a range of forensic evaluations including spousal abuse, cognitive deficits, and hardship consequences of deportation. Additionally, the book offers practical strategies for writing a clinical report acceptable in court, preparing the required waivers for an accurate evaluation, qualifying as an expert witness. Abolitionist Intimacies Eithne Luibhéid, 2025-04-18 In Abolitionist Intimacies Eithne Luibhéid examines writings by and about queer and trans identified migrants and allies who contest pervasive U.S. immigration practices and work toward a future without detention, deportation, and border controls. Luibhéid shows how these migrants and activists confront such controls by mobilizing intimacies, forging close connections in order to survive in the present. From forms of kinship beyond the heterosexual nuclear family to networks of solidarity, intimacies allow queer and trans migrants and allies to challenge the infrastructures that support the deportation state, proposed pathways to citizenship for undocumented migrants, marriage as a means for legalization, traffic interactions as a pipeline to deportation, and queer and trans migrant detention. In the process, activists and theorists have advanced new visions and configurations of possible intimacies that not only challenge deportation but also rework what immigration control and citizenship could mean. By focusing on these abolitionist efforts as well as the publicly available records on queer and trans deportees, Luibhéid highlights the new understandings that emerge.
