PTE Revision Education J. M. Ngaroga,1996      Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1966-11-01

The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya      Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1966-11-01 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya      Educational Authorities and the Schools Helene Ärlestig,Olof Johansson,2020-05-28 This book describes and analyses the organisation functions and development of national educational authorities and agencies and the influence they have on local schools in 20 countries around the world It examines the governing chain in the respective countries from both a theoretical and descriptive perspective It does so against the background of the stability and rigour of the governing chains having been challenged with some researchers considering the chain to be broken However the view that comes to the fore in this book is that the chain is still present and contains both vertical implementation structures and intervening spaces for policy interpretation How schools become successful is important for the individual students as well as the local community and the national state A vast quantity of research has looked at what happens in schools and classrooms At the same time national governance and politics as well as local prerequisites are known to exert influence on schools and their results to a high degree Societal priorities problems and traditions provide variety in how governance is executed This book provides an international overview of the similarities and differences between educational agencies and how their work influences schools      Developing a Professional Teaching Service Ian G. Halliday,1999 This book initiates a debate on how governments especially in developing nations can best enlist the expertise of people with an involvement or interest in educating the youth of the nation It is directed at Ministers and Permanent Secretaries policy makers and people in industry commerce tertiary education and teachers Published with the Association for the Development of Education in Africa

Governance, Management, and Accountability in Secondary Education in Sub-Saharan Africa World Bank,2008-02-14

Increasingly the role of management and governance is recognized as important for providing and delivering effective services at all levels of education In view of the growing demand for more and better services at secondary education levels these are crucial issues that must be addressed urgently Sub Saharan Africa s secondary education and training systems must become more efficient and more effective The current unit costs of junior and senior secondary education in most African countries prevent massive expansion of post primary education This demands a holistic approach to governance and management issues In parallel there is a demand from civil society and governments for greater accountability This study aims to present best practices and identify sustainable development plans for expansion and improved quality and efficiency in the delivery of secondary education in Sub Saharan Africa through better governance management and accountability

Report of the Commission of Inquiry (Public Service Structure and Remuneration Commission), 1970-71 Kenya.

Commission of Inquiry (Public Service Structure and Remuneration Commission), D. N. Ndegwa, 1971 Participatory Development in Kenya Josephine Syokau Mwanzia, Robert Craig Strathdee, 2016-05-13 Participatory Development PDev has been embraced by Third World governments and international organizations such as the World Bank as a means to reduce poverty and empower disadvantaged communities The emphasis on creating partnerships and using participatory and people centred approaches has obvious political appeal yet there is evidence that in practice interventions designed to increase PDev and reduce poverty have yet to have the desired empowerment transformation and sustainability effect Using an in depth study of the Basic Education Improvement Project BEIP implemented by the Government of Kenya the authors of this book critically assess the fit between policy practice and theory of PDev to shed light on theoretical debates that are on going in development
