International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook

The State, Education and Equity in Post-Apartheid South Africa Enver Motala, 2019-01-15 This title was first published in 2002 Has the South African post apartheid state been able to achieve its stated goals What has been the relationship between the process of educational reform and the impact on the state of the Constitution and other laws This seminal book responds to these questions by examining the development and implementation of social policy in South Africa during the first years of democratic government particularly in relation to education The post apartheid state was immediately faced with a broad spectrum of political social economic and human rights issues The research analyzes whether the aims and objectives of the new administration were achieved no other single collection of research in South Africa collectively explores the issues raised in this endeavour The book will appeal to a wide range of professionals including researchers academics planners policy makers public servants and postgraduate students

Evolution Education Around the Globe Hasan Deniz, Lisa A. Borgerding, 2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe Western Europe North Africa South Africa North America South America Middle East Far East South East Asia Australia and New Zealand Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories a understanding the interrelationships among cognitive affective epistemological and religious factors that are related to peoples views about evolution b designing implementing evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding and c reducing antievolutionary attitudes This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross cultural meta analysis Written for a primarily academic audience this book provides a much needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe
