Joseph Kokela,Dr KS Malatji,2023-08-24 Small schools due to a variety of reasons are compelled to opt for multi grade teaching in which learners of more than one grade are taught in one class Resultantly the purpose of this study was to evaluate the capacity of South African schools in the implementation of multi grade teaching The study followed a qualitative approach to evaluate the implementation of multi grade teaching A case study research design was followed with an interpretive paradigm to evaluate day to day offering of multi grade teaching The population in this study consisted of principals and teachers who were selected through purposive sampling Data were collected through focus group and face to face semi structured interviews as well as document analysis Kolb s experiential learning theory was used as a theoretical framework for this study to evaluate the offering of multi grade teaching in case study schools The thematic approach was used to analyse data To ensure issues of ethical consideration the researcher ensured that there is anonymity confidentiality informed consent voluntary participation participants privacy and safety The study found that schools in Sekhukhune South Education District could not offer multi grade teaching This was mainly based on the lack of central policies on multi grade teaching as well as inappropriate teacher development programmes Insufficient human and financial resources were also identified as key hindrances in the implementation of multi grade teaching Resultantly the study suggested that the serving teachers their SMTs and their Curriculum Advisors must be provided with in service training on multi grade teaching On the other hand teacher training universities should have a compulsory module on multi grade teaching The study also recommended the establishment of a DoBE unit that solely focuses on matters related to multi grade teaching The study further recommended that the DoBE should develop central policies on multi grade teaching It was also recommended that the DoBE s Post Provision Model and the National Norms and Standards for School Funding must be revised to cater for the needs of multi grade schools The study further proposed a new framework to engender collaboration amongst principals parents and Curriculum Advisors in school based multi grade policy formulation advocacy training as well as monitoring and support

Understanding Teacher Stress in an Age of Accountability Richard Lambert, Christopher McCarthy, 2006-03-01

School districts today face increasing calls for accountability during a time when budgets are stretched and students needs have become increasingly complex The teacher s responsibility is to educate younger people but now more than ever teachers face demands on a variety of fronts In addition to teaching academic content schools are responsible for students performance on state wide tests They are also asked to play an increasingly larger role in children s well being including their nutritional needs and social and emotional welfare Teachers have shown themselves to be more than capable of taking up such challenges but what price is paid for the increasing demands we are placing on our schools Understanding Teacher Stress in an Age of Accountability is about the nature of teachers stress and the resources they can employ to cope with it Accountability is a two way street and the authors in this volume suggest remedies for reducing teacher stress and in all likelihood increasing student learning greater administrative support more and better instructional materials specialized resources targeted at demanding children parental support and professional recognition Readers will discover that lack of funding low pay concerns about academic performance and student misbehavior and increased public and governmental scrutiny are not exclusive to the United States In this volume the third in a series on Research on Stress and Coping in Education authors from Australia Turkey Malaysia and the Netherlands sound the same alarms post the same warnings and draw similarly disturbing conclusions Teaching Middle School Physical Education Michael E.
