Morning Song Joanne Lehman, 2005 Under and out from under the shadow of death Joanne Lehman writes in the emptiness between one breath and the next Her rural Ohio landscape is animated with rough and mild weather red wing blackbirds hayfields woodlands and the sweet and sometimes too tight lips and rhythms of sectarian life These poems speak simply and their mourning memory and healing are a balm for times when a little bit of quiet would do us all a world of good This is a fine first book as meditative wise and joyful as it is bound to local life on our turning earth Julia Kasdorf

The Whole Death Catalog Harold Schechter, 2009-06-02 In the tradition of Mary Roach's bestselling Stiff and Jessica Mitford's classic exposé The American Way of Death comes this meticulously researched refreshingly irreverent and lavishly illustrated look at death from acclaimed author Harold Schechter With his trademark fearlessness and bracing sense of humor Schechter digs deep into a wealth of sources to unearth a treasure trove of surprising facts amusing anecdotes practical information and timeless wisdom about that undiscovered country to which we will all one day travel Topics include Death anxiety is your fear of death normal or off the scale You can't take it with you or can you Wacky wills and bizarre bequests The hospice experience going out in comfort and style Deathbed and funeral etiquette how to help the dying and mourn the dead with dignity Death on demand why the right to die movement may be the next big thing Good bye everybody famous last words The embalmer's art all dressed up and nowhere to go Behind the scenes at your local funeral home Alternative burial choices from coral reefs to outer space From the cold hard facts of death to lessons in the art of dying well from what happens in the body's last living moments to what transpires in the ground or in the furnace from near death experiences to speculation on the afterlife The Whole Death Catalog leaves no gravestone unturned The Sweetest Light Gerry Becker, 2024-12-30 In a tragic plane crash in the mountains of central Idaho in 2005 author Gerry Becker lost the three most important men in her life her husband Bill and their two sons Ben and Andy The Sweetest Light weaves together Gerry's cherished memories with Bill and their children as well as the aftermath of loss she and her daughter Emily endured Gerry's stories span more than twenty years from her kids' childhood to her to the debilitating moments that turned into years of heartbreak following the accident Hers is a story as much about love as it is about loss about friendship and family as much as heartbreak and resilience Through the stories in The Sweetest Light Gerry honors family those living those lost as well as her personal journey through grief which continues to inspire her to find meaning and purpose on the other side

Thieves' Latin Peter Jay Shippy, 2005-04 Ah writ happens Like the con men who rely on thieves' Latin to ply their trade the poems in Peter Jay Shippy's award winning collection don't play well with other poems They are difficult They rave They are unsettling and blunt They crash cars and ride tsunamis and hitch rides on tugs They also provide a contemporary ironic and tender view of America all the while layering wordplay cleverness and sentiment They Were Still Born Janel C. Atlas, 2010-12-16 Stillbirth defined as the death of an infant between 20 weeks gestation and birth is a tragedy repeated thirty thousand times every year in the United States That means more than eighty mothers a day feel their babies slip silently from their bodies the only sound in the delivery room their own sobs Eighty stillborn babies a day means heartbroken families mourn the death of children who will never breathe gurgle learn to walk or go to school In 2006 Janel Atlas became one of those mothers who left the hospital with empty arms her second daughter Beatrice Dianne was stillborn at 36 weeks Reaching out for comfort she realized a dire need shared by so many others like her and so was born a collection of new essays by writers each sharing their firsthand experiences with stillbirth Atlas includes selections not only from mothers but also fathers and grandparents all of whom have intimate stories to share with readers In addition there are selections that answer many of the medical questions families have in the wake of a stillbirth and that offer the latest research on this devastating loss and how it might be prevented Grieving parents will find in these pages the comfort of knowing they are not alone on this painful path validation of their babies' lives and guidance from those who have suffered this tragedy In addition

They Were Still Born both inspires and shows readers how to honor and remember their own babies and stories of loss No parent or grandparent to be sets out planning to purchase They Were Still Born Unfortunately there will always be readers devastated grieving and searching for voices to help them through who need it Exhale Amy Carroll,Cheri Gregory,2019-06-04 Move from running on empty to spent and content Exhale is for the woman who is suffocating under the pressures of being all things to all people The pressure of filling every unfilled spot at church home and work The pressure of trying to do it all right make decisions that benefit everyone else and keep everyone happy Rather than adding more to your to do list in this book Amy Carroll and Cheri Gregory show you how to lose who you re not love who you are live your one life well This isn t a time management book filled with how to lists and calendar tools Rather it walks you through a process that releases you from the things that have created unbearable pressure Then you ll be free to start investing your life in ways that fulfill the desires of your heart benefit your people and bring glory to God Includes Now Breathe activities that correspond to each chapter s content and interactive assessments to help you move toward gentle change Binu and the Great Wall of China Su Tong,2009-08-06 In Peach Village crying is forbidden But as a child Binu never learnt to hide her tears Shunned by the villagers she faced a bleak future until she met Qiliang an orphan who offered her his hand in marriage Then one day Qiliang disappears Binu learns that he has been transported hundreds of miles and forced to labour on a project of terrifying ambition and scale the building of the Great Wall Binu is determined to find and save her husband Inspired by her love she sets out on an extraordinary journey towards Great Swallow Mountain with only a blind frog for company What follows is an unforgettable story of passion hardship and magical adventure I Still Believe Desiree Woodland,2011-01-28 According to the Foundation for Suicide Prevention every sixteen minutes someone in America dies by suicide There were more suicide deaths of young Americans in 1995 than deaths from cancer heart disease AIDS birth defects stroke pneumonia influenza and lung disease combined In 2010 it is still the third leading cause of death of young people ages 15 24 Studies suggest that the great majority of them suffered from a diagnosable mental illness and that most of them received either no treatment or inadequate treatment Ryan suffered from a mental illness that neither he nor his family understood that did not respond to treatment and resulted in his death The scar across our hearts still opens reminding us that learning to live without him is the work of a lifetime We are forced to face what cannot be changed and to trust the Creator for what we cannot now see The act of writing became for me a spiritual journey to probe the promise of beauty within the darkness to seek understanding in mystery and to believe once again in life after death The Grieving Child in the Classroom Sue Trace Lawrence,2019-11-27 The Grieving Child in the Classroom integrates the latest research on children s bereavement and adapts it for use in the classroom Chapters tackle the neurological cognitive emotional and social effects of childhood grief and demonstrate the ways in which those reactions can manifest in the classroom By recognizing individual differences in coping styles and considering variables such as developmental stage nature of the loss and availability of support teachers and staff can become better equipped to respond to the bereaved child's needs. The book incorporates theoretical explanations of grief responses as well as practical suggestions for supporting bereaved children in real world settings. Whether the loss affects one child or the entire student body, educators can turn to this comprehensive guidebook for ways to support grieving students in their classrooms. On Loss and Living Onward Melissa Dalton-Bradford, 2014-05-06

After experiencing the loss of her first born son, Melissa Dalton Bradford thrust herself into literature searching for those who have experienced similar devastating loss. What she found was comfort and guidance to help her overcome the pain of losing a loved one and the faith to face her own life without him. In On Loss and Living Onward she has compiled the best resources that will guide the living through the process of grief. Superbly written essays by author and bereaved mother accompany each of five sections: Life at Death, Love at Death, Living After Death, Learning From Death, Life, Love and Light Over Death. Quotes are from across history, geography and the philosophical spectrum. A substantial bibliography and suggested readings list is included.

Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief Ryane E. Englar, Jill Englar, Teresa Graham Brett, 2023-10-31. An empathic and emotional exploration of the inevitable subject of grief that veterinarians will regularly encounter throughout their relationships with clients on their journey through the care and management of animal patients. The authors take an informed and supportive look at the philosophical and psychological impacts of grief, emphasizing the individual experiences of clients while also addressing the impacts on the veterinarian and veterinary team. Chapters cover the importance of the human-animal bond, unique circumstances relating to grief, practical tool kit approaches that help the vet work alongside the client in a way that is supportive and practically helpful, self-management resources for a veterinary-centric view of managing the process of euthanasia, death and grief. Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief provides practitioners and students alike with tools to better understand grief and its impact on the human-animal bond. Veterinary team members will also learn how to navigate their own mix of emotions as they themselves experience and process recurrent grief that can contribute to compassion fatigue and burnout. 5m Books

Who Is Talking Out of My Head? - Grief As an Out of Body Experience Jocelyn Faire, 2013-05. The author received the phone call that no parent wants: informing her of the tragic accident involving her children, and in an instant, life was forever changed. She opens up her heart and her journals to share the journey of grief and the foundation of her ongoing hope. This book speaks to a twofold audience: those in deep grief and those who walk alongside, desiring to comfort in truly meaningful ways but often not knowing how. By allowing the reader into her heart and head, she shows how a simple question or an unthinking comment can cause further stress and pain. Both griever and comforter will be deeply affected and encouraged by this raw, honest response to personal crippling grief. This book encourages all to sing a new song with God's help, no matter what we face in life.
