Jewish Year Book which spans three different centuries is the annual record of the North American Jewish communities and provides insight into their major trends Part I of the current volume contains the lead article Chapter 1 Pastrami Verklemt and Tshoot spa Non Jews Use of Jewish Language in the US by Sarah Bunin Benor Following this chapter are three on domestic and international events which analyze the year's events as they affect American Jewish communal and political affairs. Three chapters analyze the demography and geography of the US, Canada, and world Jewish populations. Part II provides lists of Jewish institutions including federations, community centers, social service agencies, national organizations, synagogues, Hillels, camps, museums, and Israeli consulates. The final chapters present national and local Jewish periodicals and broadcast media, academic resources including Jewish Studies programs, books, journals, articles, websites, and research libraries, and lists of major events in the past year, Jewish honorees and obituaries. While written mostly by academics, this volume conveys an accessible style making it of interest to public officials, professional and lay leaders in the Jewish community as well as the general public and academic researchers. The American Jewish Year Book has been a key resource for social scientists exploring comparative and historical data on Jewish population patterns. No less important, the Year Book serves organization leaders and policy makers as the source for valuable data on Jewish communities and as a basis for planning. Serious evidence-based articles regularly appear in the Year Book that focus on analyses and reviews of critical issues facing American Jews and their communities which are indispensable for scholars and community leaders. Calvin Goldscheider, Professor Emeritus of Sociology and Ungerleider, Professor Emeritus of Judaic Studies, Brown University, have done it again. The American Jewish Year Book has produced yet another edition to add to its distinguished tradition of providing facts, figures, and analyses of contemporary life in North America. Its well-researched and easily accessible essays offer the most up-to-date scrutiny of topics and challenges of importance to American Jewish life to the American scene of which it is a part and to world Jewry. Whether one is an academic or professional member of the Jewish community or just an interested reader of all things Jewish, there is not another more impressive and informative reading than the American Jewish Year Book. Debra Renee Kaufman, Professor Emerita and Matthews, Distinguished University Professor, Northeastern University.
