abbot Aelred of Rievaulx urged his monastic readers to imitate the Christ Child's development through spiritual growth Francis of Assisi encouraged his followers to emulate the Christ Child's poverty and rusticity Thomas Aquinas for his part believed that apocryphal stories about the Christ Child would encourage youths to be presumptuous while Birgitta of Sweden provided pious alternatives in her many Marian revelations Through close readings of such writings Dzon explores the continued transmission and appeal of apocryphal legends throughout the Middle Ages and demonstrates the significant impact that the Christ Child had in shaping the medieval religious imagination
