Teaching Bibliography Textual Criticism And Book History:

Teaching Bibliography, Textual Criticism and Book History Ann R Hawkins, 2015-10-06 Offers a variety of approaches to incorporating discussions of book history or print culture into graduate and undergraduate classrooms This work considers the book as a literary historical cultural and aesthetic object These essays are of interest to university teachers incorporating textual studies and research methods into their courses Textual Scholarship and the Material Book Wim Van

Mierlo, 2007 In the last decades the emphasis in textual scholarship has moved onto creation production process collaboration onto the material manifestations of a work onto multiple rather than single versions onto reception and book history Textual scholarship now includes not only textual editing but any form of scholarship that looks at the materiality of text of writing of reading and of the book The essays in this collection explore many questions about methodology and theory arising from this widening scope of textual scholarship The range of texts discussed from Sanskrit epic via Medieval Latin commentary through English and Scottish Ballads to the plays of Samuel Beckett and the stories of Guimarães Rosa testifies to the vigour of the discipline The range of texts is matched by a range of approach from theoretical discussion of how text happens to analysis of issues of book design and censorship the connections between literary and textual studies exploration of the links between reception and commodification in George Eliot and between information theory and paratext Through this diversity of subject and approach a common theme emerges the need to look further for common ground from which to continue the debate from a comparative perspective Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson, Steven Robert

Harris, 2009 Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Barbara Heritage, Donna A. C. Sy, 2025-05-15 Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Objects of Study is a richly illustrated volume consisting of 23 methods based chapters discussing innovative and often experimental approaches to hands on teaching with material texts Featuring 47 contributors whose work ranges from digital humanities librarianship curation and conservation to architecture culinary history fine art literary history and the history of science the collection builds on new work in the areas of text technologies and critical bibliography emerging scholarly approaches being embraced in the humanities The book features established experts in bibliography the history of the book manuscript studies and textual editing as well as educators and students who are applying new critical bibliographical methods e g Black bibliography to their pedagogy The result is a dynamic cross disciplinary cross generational exchange modeling inclusive pedagogies with textual artifacts and illuminating how object oriented teaching can harness the insights of diverse branches of practice and learning Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J.

Marcuse, 2023-11-15 Ambassadors of the Book Raphaële Mouren, 2012-12-19 What competences are needed for heritage librarians and how can they be taught The management of heritage collections requires a unique mix of knowledge and skills including expertise in preservation and conservation heritage policies acquisitions and collection management bibliographic description the materiality of books and other collection objects and the history of libraries Librarians must also understand the need for open access the importance of marketing and the challenges posed by digitization Shakespeare and Textual Studies Margaret Jane Kidnie, Sonia Massai, 2015-11-12 Shakespeare and Textual Studies gathers contributions from the leading specialists in the fields of manuscript and textual studies book history editing and digital humanities to provide a comprehensive reassessment of how manuscript print and digital practices have shaped the body of works that we now call Shakespeare This cutting edge collection identifies the legacies of previous theories and places special emphasis on the most recent developments in the editing of Shakespeare since the turn to materialism in the late twentieth century Providing a wide ranging overview of current approaches and debates the book explores Shakespeare s poems and plays in light of new evidence engaging scholars editors and book historians in conversations about the recovery of early composition and publication and the ongoing appropriation and transmission of Shakespeare s works through new technologies

Home Ground and Foreign Territory Janice Fiamengo, 2014-04-03 The first multi disciplinary collection of essays to focus exclusively on early Canadian literature with the aim of reassessing the field and proposing new approaches An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual Studies Craig S. Abbott, William Proctor Williams, 2014-08-01 To a reader of Joyce s Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus s first thoughts is No mother as in the printed version or No mother as in the manuscript The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S Abbott s acclaimed handbook This updated fourth edition outlines the study of texts composition revision physical embodiments process of transmission and manner of reception describes how new technologies such as digital imaging and electronic tagging have changed the way we produce read preserve and research texts discusses why these matters are central to a historical understanding of literature and shows how the insights methods and products of bibliographical and textual studies can be applied to other branches of scholarship Gender and the Book Trades Elise Watson, Jessica Farrell-Jobst, 2024-12-02 This volume proposes a new and radically inclusive approach to the study of the book by using gender as a tool of analysis While female authors and women in the book trades have long been studied gender itself has yet to be explored as a methodology rather than a subject in book history We argue that putting gender analysis into practice requires thinking inclusively about both the book world and the interactions of its participants from the beginning With twenty five pioneering case studies that stretch from colonial Peru to modern Delhi using a variety of intersectional methodologies including network analysis critical bibliography and queer theory Gender and the Book Trades sets out an innovative method of analysing the printed book Contributors Rebecca Baumann Montserrat Cachero Ver nica Calsoni Lima Matthew Chambers Kanupriya Dhingra Nora Epstein Natalia

Hawkins, 2016-12-05 In 1788 the Catalogue of Five Hundred Celebrated Authors of Great Britain Now Living forecast a form of authorship that rested on biographical revelation and media saturation as well as literary achievement This collection traces the unique experiences of women writers within a celebrity culture that was intimately connected to the expansion of print technology and of visual and material culture in the nineteenth century The contributors examine a wide range of artifacts including prefaces portraits frontispieces birthday books calendars and gossip columns to consider the nature of women s celebrity and the forces that created it How did authors like Jane Austen the Countess of Blessington Louisa May Alcott Alice Meynell and Marie Corelli negotiate the increasing demands for public revelation of the private self How did gender shape the posthumous participation of women writers such as Jane Austen Ellen Wood Mary Elizabeth Braddon and Christina Rossetti in celebrity culture These and other important questions related to the treatment of women in celebrity genres and media and the strategies women writers used to control their public images are taken up in this suggestive exploration of how nineteenth and early twentieth century women writers achieved popular critical and commercial success The Cambridge Companion to the History of the Book Leslie Howsam, 2014-12-11 Throughout human history the world s knowledge and fruits of the creative imagination have been produced circulated and received through the medium of the material text This Companion provides a wide ranging account of the history of the book and its ways of thinking about works from ancient inscription to contemporary e books discussing thematic chronological and methodological aspects of this interdisciplinary field The first part considers book cultures from local national and global perspectives Part two organized around the dynamic relationship between the material book and the mutable text develops a loosely chronological narrative from early writing through manuscript and early printing to the institution of a mechanized book trade and on to the globalization of publishing and the introduction of the electronic book A third part takes a practical turn discussing methods sources and approaches bibliographical archival and reading experience methodologies as well as pedagogical strategies Ambient Literature Tom Abba, Jonathan Dovey, Kate Pullinger, 2020-11-30 This book considers how a combination of place based writing and location responsive technologies produce new kinds of literary experiences Building on the work done in the Ambient Literature Project 2016 2018 this book argues that these encounters constitute new literary forms in which the authored text lies at the heart of an embodied and mediated experience The visual sonic social and historic resources of place become the elements of a live and emergent mise en sc ne Specific techniques of narration including hallucination memory history place based writing and drama as well as reworking of traditional storytelling forms combine with the work of app and user experience design interaction software authoring and GIS geographical information systems to produce ambient experiences where the user reads a textual and sonic literary space These experiences are temporary ambiguous and unpredictable in their meaning but unlike the theatre the gallery or the cinema they take place in the everyday shared world The book explores the potentiality of a new literary form produced by the exchange between location aware cultural objects writers and readers This book and the work it explores lays the ground for a new poetics of situated writing and reading practices
