

Legal Studies Jeopardy

This term you were introduced to the Australian legal system, the sources of law, and the roles of parliament and the courts.

You also learned about the rule of law and legal principles and criteria, for example just and equitable outcomes.

Additionally, you were introduced to the concept of a representative democracy. You learned how politicians are elected and the various duties of MPs. You have also learned a little about the major political parties in Australia.

Now it is time to test your knowledge retention!
