The Autobiography Of Charles Darwin:

Autobiography of Charles Darwin Charles Darwin, Sir Francis Darwin, 1929 The Autobiography of Charles Darwin Charles Darwin, 2022-05-28 In The Autobiography of Charles Darwin readers are provided with a profound insight into the life and thoughts of one of science's most pivotal figures. Written with remarkable clarity and introspective depth, this work illuminates Darwin's formative experiences, his scientific inquiries, and the evolving context of the Victorian era which both informed and challenged his groundbreaking theories. The narrative interweaves personal anecdotes with broader reflections on science, religion, and society, establishing a unique literary style that combines autobiography with philosophical inquiry, making it a vital resource for understanding the intellectual landscape of the 19th century. Charles Darwin (1809-1882) was a naturalist and geologist renowned for his groundbreaking work on the theory of evolution through natural selection. Influenced by a diverse family background and extensive voyages, particularly the HMS Beagle expedition, his reflections reveal not only the scientific rigor behind his cogent theories but also the personal struggles he faced as he contended with the theological implications of his findings. This blend of rigorous scholarship and personal narrative enriches our understanding of Darwin as both a scientist and a man. I recommend The Autobiography of Charles Darwin to anyone interested in the complexities of scientific thought and the nature of personal conviction. This work offers a rare glimpse into the mind of a visionary thinker, making it essential reading for historians, scientists, and anyone curious about the origins of modern biology.

My father's autobiographical recollections were written for his children and written without any thought that they would ever be published. To many, this may seem an impossibility, but those who knew my father will understand how it was not only possible but natural. The autobiography bears the heading "Recollections of the Development of my Mind and Character" and ends with the following note: Aug 3 1876 This sketch of my life was begun about May 28th at Hopedene, Mr Hensleigh Wedgwood's house in Surrey, and since then I have written for nearly an hour on most afternoons. It will easily be understood that in a narrative of a personal and intimate kind, written for his wife and children, passages should occur which must here be omitted, and I have not thought it necessary to indicate where such omissions are made. When I left the school I was for my age neither high nor low in it and I believe that I was considered by all my masters and by my father as a very ordinary boy rather below the common standard in intellect. Charles Darwin, November 13, 1859. Originally published in 1892, this autobiography of the great naturalist and father of modern biology, compiled and edited by his son Francis, is an intriguing behind-the-scenes look into the personal life of a great scientist and the development of one of the most powerful ideas of the modern era. Although a short book, it is filled with absorbing and interesting glimpses into the mind and personal experiences of the man whose discoveries have had such a profound influence on science, philosophy, and the modern scientific perspective. In the first half of the book, Darwin reminisces about his early life, his family, and upbringing, and his five-year voyage on the HMS Beagle during which he made the many observations that were later to prove so critical to his formulation of evolutionary theory. The second half is devoted mainly to the Origin of Species, its foundations, development, the writing and publication process, its varied critical reception, and the gradual acceptance and growth of evolutionary theory. Also included are thoughts on his lesser-known work in geology and the fertilization of flowers, plus a selection of his letters. Contents: CAMBRIDGE 1828-1831 VOYAGE OF THE BEAGLE FROM DECEMBER 27, 1831, TO OCTOBER 2, 1836; FROM MY RETURN TO ENGLAND, OCTOBER 2, 1836, TO MY MARRIAGE, JANUARY 29, 1839; AND RESIDENCE IN UPPER GOWER STREET, RESIDENCE AT DOWN, FROM SEPTEMBER 14, 1842, TO THE PRESENT TIME, 1876; MY SEVERAL PUBLICATIONS WRITTEN, MAY 1ST, 1881. The Autobiography of Charles Darwin Charles Darwin, 2018-11-18. emotional episodes required Darwin's civility. They differ about slavery, FitzRoy protecting it and Darwin abhorring it. He conveyed Lyell's Principles of Geology with him, read Milton and gathered various examples which he sent back to Britain 28 months after his arrival. Darwin wedded his cousin Emma Wedgwood. The marriage was cheerful and delivered 10 children. In the section on his religious convictions, Darwin gives 4 reasons behind trusting the Old Testament to be bogus as he has considered the laws of nature; he has stopped to believe in supernatural occurrences. He dismisses Bishop Paley's contention for insightful structure. Everything in nature is the result of fixed laws. The Christian god is unfeeling as he makes innocent creatures endure and sentences non-devotees to hell. Darwin admits he does not comprehend the mystery of the beginning of all things, considering himself an agnostic. He plots the great Victorian men he has known, however his ill health has since quite a while ago kept him from voyaging or seeing companions. He talks about his publications including Origin of Species, expressing he could not have cared less whether he or Wallace got the credit for the theory of evolution. He credits his prosperity to his moderate abilities. He has been deliberate, enterprising and commonsensical.
