The Alternative Media Handbook:

The Alternative Media Handbook Kate Coyer, Tony Dowmunt, Alan Fountain, 2007-12-27 This book offers an overview of global alternative media activity before moving on to provide information about alternative media production and how to get involved in it Routledge Handbook of Media, Conflict and Security Piers Robinson, Philip Seib, Romy

Frohlich, 2016-11-10 This Handbook links the growing body of media and conflict research with the field of security studies The academic sub field of media and conflict has developed and expanded greatly over the past two decades Operating across a diverse range of academic disciplines academics are studying the impact the media has on governments pursuing war responses to humanitarian crises and violent political struggles and the role of the media as a facilitator of and a threat to both peace building and conflict prevention This handbook seeks to consolidate existing knowledge by linking the body of conflict and media studies with work in security studies The handbook is arranged into five parts Theory and Principles Media the State and War Media and Human Security Media and Policymaking within the Security State New Issues in Security and Conflict and Future Directions For scholars of security studies this handbook will provide a key point of reference for state of the art scholarship concerning the media security nexus for scholars of communication and media studies the handbook will provide a comprehensive mapping of the media conflict field Political Communication

Carsten Reinemann, 2014-07-28 Against the background of an enormous expansion and diversification of both political communication itself and scientific research into its structures processes and effects this volume gives an overview of some of the key theories and findings accumulated by political communication research over the last decades In order to do so the volume provides readers with review articles by renowned international authors on various aspects of I the normative regulatory and conceptual foundations of political communication II different situations of political communication e g elections referendums social movements media hypes crisis and war III the activities of and part played by political actors IV mass media and journalism V characteristics and typical features of media messages VI the role played by citizens as well as VII various kinds of effects on citizens Each section includes several chapters that address specific issues and research problems in the form of comprehensive overviews articles Journalism and Climate Crisis Robert Hackett, Susan

Forde, Shane Gunster, Kerrie Foxwell-Norton, 2017-02-17 Journalism and Climate Crisis Public Engagement Media Alternatives recognizes that climate change is more than an environmental crisis It is also a question of political and communicative capacity This book enquires into which approaches to journalism as a particularly important form of public communication can best enable humanity to productively address climate crisis The book combines selective overviews of previous research normative enquiry what should journalism be doing and original empirical case studies of environmental communication and media coverage in Australia and Canada Bringing together perspectives from the fields of environmental communication and journalism studies the authors argue for forms of journalism that can encourage public engagement and mobilization to challenge the powerful interests vested in a high carbon economy facilitative and radical roles particularly well suited to alternative media and alternative journalism Ultimately the book argues for a fundamental rethinking of relationships between journalism publics democracy and climate crisis This book will interest researchers students and activists in environmental politics social movements and the media Visual Media in Indonesia Edwin

Jurriëns,2017-02-24 In the age of digital communication and global capitalism people s mental social and natural environments are interconnected in complex and often unpredictable ways This book focuses on the visual media one of the key factors in shaping the contemporary ecology of colliding environments Case studies include video artists community media activists television programme makers and literary authors in the fourth most populous country in the world Indonesia The author demonstrates that these actors are part of an international creative and social vanguard that reflect on criticise and rework the multidimensional impact of the visual media in imaginative and innovative ways Their work explores alternative and more sustainable presents and futures for Indonesia and the world This research is urgent and timely as Indonesia has emerged in recent years as one of the world s most vibrant hubs for contemporary art and media experimentation Using an innovative interdisciplinary framework of visual culture analysis that derives from a wide range of academic fields the book will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Media Studies Cultural Studies and Art History Anthropology and Sociology Handbook of Research on Combating Threats to Media Freedom and Journalist Safety Jamil, Sadia,2019-12-27 The freedom of expression and the freedom of information are the indispensable components of free media Without these two basic rights an informed active and participatory citizenry is impossible Members of the media require special protections to enable them to operate freely in order to advocate for human rights public discourse and the plurality of ideas The Handbook of Research on Combating Threats to Media Freedom and Journalist Safety is an essential reference source that evaluates how diverse threats impact on journalists wellbeing their right to freedom of expression and overall media freedoms in various contexts and assesses inadequacies in national security policies planning and coordination relating to the safety of journalists in different countries Featuring research on topics such as freedom of the press professional journalism and media security this book is ideally designed for journalists news writers editors columnists press broadcasters newscasters government officials lawmakers diplomats international relations officers law enforcement industry professionals academicians researchers and students The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy Robin Mansell,Marc Raboy,2014-03-03 The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy offers insights into the boundaries of this field of study assesses why it is important who is affected and with what political economic social and cultural consequences Provides the most up to date and comprehensive collection of essays from top scholars in the field Includes contributions from western and eastern Europe North and Central America Africa and Asia Offers new conceptual frameworks and new methodologies for mapping the contours of emergent global media and communication policy Draws on theory and empirical research to offer multiple perspectives on the local national regional and global forums in which policy debate occurs

Civic Engagement in Contemporary Japan Henk Vinken,Yuko Nishimura,Bruce L. J. White,Masayuki Deguchi,2010-03-25 Civic engagement is a concept of action that has become part of common vocabulary not only in the West but also in many other regions of the world as well A growing yet still small number of scholarly works has recently emerged showing how in Japan citizen activism volunteering and social action for a public cause are dev oping This present volume is another and in my view important addition to the body of knowledge on civic engagement in Japan The majority of books on related issues in Japan take on the perspective of organized civic life in nongovernmental organizations NGOs or nonprofit organizations NPOs we know quite a number of things about the quantitative trends in these organizations on their positioning on their difficulties and on the institutional contexts in which they have to work We know relatively little except for a small number of topical qualitative case studies on broad issues that relate to civic engagement in Japan inside or outside these formal organizations This volume is the first to offer a wide scope of broad variety of forms of civic engagement in contemporary Japan The volume is quite forceful in counterbalancing oversimplified ideas on an ideal civil society in which state market and civil society organizations are in pendent and at best take on oppositional stances

Alternative Media in Contemporary Turkey Murat Akser,Victoria McCollum,2021-10-06 The transformations in alternative media journalism and social protest in contemporary Turkey have largely occurred due to the upsurge in use of social media Some of the most fervent users of social media in the world come from Turkey where forms of social media are frequently banned by the Turkish government This book looks at the structural economic and political reasons why the current media system fails urban educated young professionals in Turkey and led them to a month long resistance and protest through the use of social media during OccupyGezi movement The book outlines the history of alternative media use and the ways in which it has become a tool for the critics of the neoliberal economic system in Turkey The collection concentrates on social media use within social movements and applies interdisciplinary approaches and research methods ranging from cinema and visual arts to sociology political science content analysis and ethnographic study

Feminist Media Elke Zobl,Ricarda Drüeke,2014-04-15 While feminists have long recognised the importance of self managed alternative media to transport their messages to challenge the status quo and to spin novel social processes this topic has been an under researched area Hence this book explores the processes of women s and feminist media production in the context of participatory spaces technology and cultural citizenship The collection is composed of theoretical analyses and critical case studies It highlights contemporary alternative feminist media in general as well as blogs zines culture jamming and street art

Race, Representation, and Satire Christopher P. Campbell,2023-12-06 Race Representation and Satire examines the role of humor sarcasm and parody in providing audiences with insight into race and racism in contemporary media through an analysis of representations of race and ethnicity in texts online content television shows and comedy routines Contributors argue that while many minoritized groups continue to be targeted by stereotypes and myths that have lingered for centuries satire and comedy can be powerful tools for reversing harmful narratives and generating accurate authentic and inclusive representations Scholars of media studies popular culture rhetoric and race will find this book particularly useful

Handbook of Research on the Political Economy of Communications and Media Karlidag, Serpil, Bulut, Selda, 2020-03-20 The political economy deals with the structure of production and the social relations of people in production With its focus on structures and practices the political economy also analyzes the contradictions of capitalism and suggests resistance and intervention strategies using methods from history economics sociology and political science The dominant commercial media in capitalism operates both as a product of economic and political structure and as an industrial institution with economic and political functions Current Theories and Practice in the Political Economy of Communications and Media is a collection of innovative research on new approaches in the political economy of communication in the process of globalization While highlighting topics including consumer behavior news production and public relations this book is ideally designed for newscasters broadcasters journalists marketers advertisers production managers researchers industry professionals academics and students seeking to extend the border of standard political economy of communication studies into relatively undiscovered areas

Sustainable Resilience in Women's Film and Video Organizations Rosanna Maule, 2023-07-14 This book illustrates a distinctive lineage of critical interventions in moving image culture and in the public sphere through the trajectories of a small number of film and video organizations established between the 1970s and the early 1980s in Western Europe and North America mainly by women and still operative today The six case studies examined Drac M gic Women Make Movies Groupe Intervention Vid o Leeds Animation Workshop bildwechsel Centre Audiovisuel Simone de Beauvoir have maintained a discrete yet continuing presence within an audiovisual industry and a cultural system dominated by institutionalized and corporate forms of production and distribution Their longevity quite a rarity in the independent circuit makes a strong case for the sustainability of feminist LGBTQ media activism in the public sphere in spite of its low key profile This volume will be of interest to academicians of history and communication studies feminist and LGBTQ topics and gender related cinematic culture

Youth Citizenship and the European Union Elvira Cicognani, Frosso Motti-Stefanidi, 2020-06-29 This book applies a number of different disciplinary and geographical perspectives to ascertain whether and how European youth identify with the EU trust EU institutions and engage in EU issues It investigates the factors and processes that predict the different ways in which young Europeans engage or do not engage with social and political issues and become active European citizens The volume is based on results from the first two years of the Horizon 2020 CATCH EyoU project Constructing AcTive CitizensHip with European Youth Policies Practices Challenges and Solutions It addresses different dimensions of active citizenship in the EU and different processes and contexts that explain the construction of youth active citizenship including societal level factors such as policy context and media interaction level contexts such as school and family and individual level factors The final chapter emphasizes the impact of the current historical context on the development of young Europeans civic identity and their understanding of the social and political reality With contributions from a variety of disciplines including psychology political science communications and education and spanning geographic contexts across Europe this book will be of interest to researchers studying contemporary European youth and the construction of young people s identity This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of Developmental Psychology Chapters 1 and 5 are available Open Access at <https://www.routledge.com/products/9780367236557> Routledge Handbook on Arab Media Nouredine Miladi,Noha Mellor,2020-11-29 This handbook provides the first comprehensive reference book in English about the development of mass and social media in all Arab countries Capturing the historical as well as current developments in the media scene this collection maps the role of media in social and political movements Contributors include specialists in the field from North America Europe and the Middle East Each chapter provides an overview of the history regulatory frameworks and laws governing the press and socio political functions of the media While the geopolitical complexities of the region have been reflected in the expert analyses collectively the focus is always the local context of each member state All 38 chapters consider the specific historical political and media trajectories in each country to provide a contextual background and foundation for further study about single states or comparative analysis in two or more Arab states Capturing significant technological developments and the widespread use of social media this all inclusive volume on Arab media is a key resource for students and scholars interested in journalism media and Middle East studies Handbook of Media and Communication Economics Jan Krone,Tassilo Pellegrini,2024-10-28 This handbook maps the media economy in its entirety against the background of the advancing digitalization of communication media production media distribution and the adaptation of regulatory framework conditions from different disciplinary approaches It provides an integrated view on digitally induced economic transformations of the European media sector and gives an explicitly European perspective on media economics challenging the dominant US American view Topics covered include but are not limited to Theoretical approaches to media economics media technologies and data management in media economics building blocks of the media industry media types and core distribution markets system aspects and communication culture media systems and regulatory policy as well as methods of media economics The handbook is a must read for students teachers and researchers in media and communication economics and science as well as practitioners and policy makers at the nexus of media business and politics The Decline of Public Access and Neo-Liberal Media Regimes Brian Caterino,2020-04-28 This book examines the reasons behind the declining fortunes of public access channels Public access which provided perhaps the boldest experiment in popular media democracy is in steep decline While some have argued it is technologically outmoded Caterino argues that the real reason lies with the rise of a neo liberal media regime This regime creates a climate in which we can understand these changes This book considers the role of neo liberalism in transforming notions of public obligations and regulation of media that have impacted non profit media specifically public access Neo liberalism has tried to eliminate public forums and public discourse and weakens institutions of civil society Though social media is often championed as an arena of communicative freedom Caterino argues that neo liberalism has created a colonized social media environment that severely limits popular democracy InsUrgent Media from the Front Chris Rob  ,Stephen Charbonneau,2020-11-03 In the 1940s it was 16 mm film In the 1980s it was handheld video cameras Today it is cell phones and social media Activists have always found ways to use the media du jour for quick and widespread distribution InsUrgent Media from the Front takes a look at activist media practices in the 21st century and sheds light on what it means to enact change using different media of the past and present Chris Rob and Stephen Charbonneau s edited collection uses the term insUrgent media to highlight the ways grassroots media activists challenged and are challenging hegemonic norms like colonialism patriarchy imperialism classism and heteronormativity Additionally the term is used to convey the sense of urgency that defines media activism Unlike slower traditional media activist media has historically sacrificed aesthetics for immediacy Consequently this run and gun method of capturing content has shaped the way activist media looks throughout history With chapters focused on indigenous resistance community media and the use of media as activism throughout US history InsUrgent Media from the Front emphasizes the wide reach media activism has had over time Visibility is not enough when it comes to media activism and the contributors provide examples of how to refocus the field not only to be an activist but to study activism as well

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Media Esperan  a Bielsa,2021-12-24 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Media provides the first comprehensive account of the role of translation in the media which has become a thriving area of research in recent decades It offers theoretical and methodological perspectives on translation and media in the digital age as well as analyses of a wide diversity of media contexts and translation forms Divided into four parts with an editor introduction the 33 chapters are written by leading international experts and provide a critical survey of each area with suggestions for further reading The Handbook aims to showcase innovative approaches and developments bridging the gap between currently separate disciplinary subfields and pointing to potential synergies and broad research topics and issues With a broad ranging critical and interdisciplinary perspective this Handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation studies audiovisual translation journalism studies film studies and media studies The Open Access version of Chapter 1 available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND license Mediating Cultural Diversity in a Globalised Public Space I.
