b) Read the headings (A-E) in Ex. 3c and underline the key words. Compare with your partner.

Fit for a President

What is the most famous building in your country? Is it a symbol that everyone can recognise? 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue is a very famous address in Washington, USA.

- 1 The White House is one of the most famous symbols of America. It is the home of the President and his family. It has got a long history stretching back over two centuries to the year 1800. It is like a museum with beautiful furniture and expensive artwork and it is open to the public.
- 2 This impressive building is very large. It has got 65 floors, 132 rooms, 30 bathrooms, 3 lifts and 8 staircases. A number of the rooms are offices including the world famous Oval Office. There is also a huge kitchen and the 5 chefs there can make dinner for up to 140 people at a time.
- 3 The White House has got some very beautiful gardens. They are over 18 acres of gardens and they have got a number of different species of plants and trees. There is even an organic garden for the First Family to use. There are also 2 fountains. One is in front of the building in the North Lawn and one in the private South Lawn at the back of the White House.
- 4 There are a variety of facilities for residents and guests to use. There is a cinema and a bowling alley to relax and have fun in. There is also a gym, a tennis court and a swimming pool to play in. And the White House is also green. It has got solar panels for its heated swimming pool.

Interpersonal Understanding in Historical Context ,2009-01-01 Understanding students historical understanding is a complex and challenging endeavour for history teachers as well as for researchers from diverse fields Since historical situations contain interpersonal and social issues that happened in the past not only history educators are interested in how students understand them Also psychologists and educational scientists aim to gain knowledge how students deal with interpersonal issues in the context of history The present book shows in which way historical understanding can be viewed as interpersonal understanding and gives indications for the limitation of an interpersonal approach regarding historical situations The different contributions of this volume give insight into an interdisciplinary discussion about how the fields of social and historical thinking are interrelated with respect to educational issues and challenges This book confirms the impression of an increase in empirical work in the domain of history education The authors present empirical approaches from the fields of history education developmental psychology and educational science using different theoretical and methodical means and thus contribute to a larger picture of what teaching and learning history at school is about Study Guide to Accompany Seasons of Life 4e Telecourse Berger, Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2000-12-08 The American Vision, Modern Times, Reading Essentials and Study Guide, Workbook McGraw-Hill, 2005-06-10 The American School Board Journal ,1915 The American School ,1915 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States.
