The Architecture Of Home In Cairo:

The Architecture of Home in Cairo Dr Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, 2015-01-28 This book firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system

The Architecture of Home in Cairo Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, 2016-03-03 The hawari of Cairo narrow non straight alleyways are the basic urban units that have formed the medieval city since its foundation back in 969 AD Until early in the C20th they made up the primary urban divisions of the city and were residential in nature Contemporary hawari by contrast are increasingly dominated by commercial and industrial activity This medieval urban maze of extremely short broken zigzag streets and dead ends are defensible territories powerful institutions and important social systems While the hawari have been studied as an exemplar for urban structure of medieval Islamic urbanism and as individual building typologies this book is the first to examine in detail the socio spatial practice of the architecture of home in the city It investigates how people live communicate and relate to each other within their houses or shared spaces of the alleys and in doing so to uncover several new socio spatial dimensions and meanings in this architectural form In an attempt to re establish the link between architecture past and present and to understand the changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public

The History of Architectural Education in the Middle East and North Africa Farhan Karim, Mohammad Gharipour, 2024-12-31 The History of Architectural Education in the Middle East and North Africa explores the varied socio political landscapes within which different architectural programs and schools were established across Middle Eastern and North African countries It addresses a significant gap in our understanding of the diverse strategies and paths through which architectural pedagogy underwent institutionalization and standardization during nineteenth and twentieth centuries This process of modernization was greatly influenced by rapidly evolving socio economic conditions and the interests of the real estate market Concurrently architectural educators and institutions responded to public demands for more inclusive urban environments shaping the social ambitions and expectations of emerging modern cities Karim and Gharipour present an interconnected and parallel history of these institutions through a series of case studies They argue that architectural pedagogy and its stakeholders didn't solely shape the technical discourse of the building industry Instead their activism and advocacy collectively ignited epistemological debates concerning the perception of modern urban society and its direction

Anthony Alofsin, 2023-12-22 Ask Americans to think of a famous architect and the person they are most likely to name is Frank Lloyd Wright Wright s work his reputation and his long and colorful career have made him an icon of modern American architecture But despite his status as America s most celebrated architect his influence throughout an active practice spanning the years 1896 to 1959 is so wide and complex that it has been difficult to grasp fully The essays in this book look not at the United States the context usually associated with Wright but at countries around the globe Anthony

Alofsin has assembled a superb collection of scholars to examine Wright's importance from Japan to Great Britain France to Chile Mexico to Russia and the Middle East Interwoven in the essays are stories of champions and critics rivals and acolytes books and exhibitions attitudes toward America and individualism and the many ways Wright's ideas were brought to the world Together the essays represent a first look at Wright's impact abroad some from the perspective of natives of the countries discussed and others from that of informed outsiders Of special note is Bruno Zevi's firsthand account of traveling with Wright in Italy Zevi was instrumental in bringing Wright's ideas to Italy and in helping launch the movement for organic architecture Of unusual interest in light of today's events in Iraq is Mina Marefat's essay on Wright's elaborate designs for a cultural center for the city of Baghdad The Baghdad projects which were never realized after the assassination of King Faisal II were Wright's principal focus in his last decade In searching out the little known rather than reexamining the well established aspects of Frank Lloyd Wright's work this collection is a rewarding exploration of his vision and influence Ask Americans to think of a famous architect and the person they are most likely to name is Frank Lloyd Wright Wright's work his reputation and his long and colorful career have made him an icon of modern American architecture But despite his status a

Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. The Architecture Of Home In Cairo : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
