Nicolás Kanellos

Short Bio Templates Immigration:

Hispanic Immigrant Literature Nicolás Kanellos, 2011-07-01 Immigration has been one of the basic realities of life for Latino communities in the United States since the nineteenth century. It is one of the most important themes in Hispanic literature and it has given rise to a specific type of literature while also defining what it means to be Hispanic in the United States. Immigrant literature uses predominantly the language of the homeland; it serves a population united by that language irrespective of national origin and it solidifies and furthers national identity. The literature of immigration reflects the reasons for emigrating, records both orally and in writing the trials and tribulations of immigration and facilitates adjustment to the new society while maintaining links with the old society. Based on an archive assembled over the past two decades by author Nicolás Kanellos's Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage project, this comprehensive study is one of the first to define this body of work. Written and recorded by people from Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America, the texts presented here reflect the dualities that have characterized the Hispanic immigrant experience in the United States since the mid-nineteenth century, set always against a longing for homeland. Transculturating

Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena, 2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena's theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes, demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self-inscription and self-representation. Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing, which tends to centre on content, the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues. To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities. This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies. The Routledge Introduction to Auto/biography in Canada Sonja Boon, Laurie McNeill, Julie Rak, Candida Rifkind, 2022-12-29 The Routledge Introduction to Auto/biography in Canada explores the exciting world of nonfiction writing about the self, designed to give teachers and students the tools they need to study both canonical and lesser-known works. The volume introduces important texts and contexts for interpreting life narratives, demonstrates the conceptual tools necessary to understand what life narratives are and how they work, and offers an historical overview of key moments in Canadian auto/biography. Not sure what life writing in Canada is or how to study it? This critical introduction covers the tools and approaches you require in order to undertake your own interpretation of life writing texts. You will encounter nonfictional writing about individual lives and experiences, including biography, autobiography, letters, diaries, comics, poetry, plays, and memoirs. The volume includes case studies to provide examples of how to study and research life narratives and toolkits to help you apply what you learn. Canadian Immigration and South Asian Immigrants Abdur Rahim, 2014-09-19 South Asian immigrants have made a significant contribution to the Canadian mosaic However their trials and tribulations and their successes and failures constitute a story that remains untold To know of their arrivals their struggles to beat the odds as well as their successes is to read a story of hard work of tireless effort to make it of the commitment to belong and of ultimate success This process not only re shaped them from who they were to who they are now but also re shaped Canada that we know today Their influence can be felt in the arts and sciences the humanities and in politics community works and in social services This book is an attempt to understand the what and how of that unfolding process and also to know the real concerns about the conditions of Canadas ethnic minority population South Asian Canadians and their children in particular

Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Claire Mouflard, 2020-11-17 In Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Mouflard argues that the identity politics surrounding the immigration discourse of early twenty first century France were reflected in the marketing and editing practices of the Metropole's key publishers specifically with regards to non white French women's literature Echoing the utopic Black Blanc Beur model of integration which surfaced during the 1998 soccer World Cup select publishers fashioned unofficial literary categories based on neocolonial racial and gender stereotypes either lauding integrated Beur authors or exploiting Black political dissenters Concurrently metropolitan women writers in their autobiographies autofictions and manifestoes problematized notions of French multiculturalism and literary hierarchies thereby exposing the dangers of utopian thinking Mouflard ultimately reveals that the absence of the Franco Vietnamese identity from the Black Blanc Beur paradigm enabled authors of Southeastern Asian origin to establish themselves outside of the era's reductive multicultural utopia within a realm directly adjacent to literature française if not in a newly designed truly multicultural French literature category Overall Mouflard's research highlights the discrepancies between France's official discourse on immigration and the actual identity formation processes created by the institutions and exploited by influential publishers in the years leading to the historic 2005 banlieue civil unrest
