

Essay 1 – Short Story Analysis

Write a two-to-three-page (500-800 words) critical analysis of ONE of the following short stories:

“Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been?” by Joyce Carol Oates

“Cathedral” by Raymond Carver

Critical Analysis To analyze your chosen short story, you must first pose a good critical question about it. Your critical question should ask how a particular literary element in the story works, how some aspect of plot, character, setting, or point of view enhances the story. A good critical question should be interesting, problematic, and significant; it should have more than one plausible answer, and it should offer readers new insights into the story. Your Short Story Journals will help you develop a strong critical question for your essay.

Thesis Your paper must have a thesis. The thesis is your answer to the critical question you pose; it is a central claim you intend to prove or demonstrate. A good thesis is neither so bizarre that you can't defend it (“In Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Huck is actually Jim's imaginary friend, a subconscious projection of the runaway slave's mind.”) nor so boring that no one could possibly disagree with it (“The first-person point of view in Adventures of Huckleberry Finn helps readers understand what Huck is thinking.”).

Evidence Support every point you make in your essay with specific evidence from the text; with very few exceptions, that evidence will consist of direct quotations from the story and your analysis of them. Use your evidence to back up your thesis in two ways. First, and most importantly, you should closely read and analyze portions of the text to show how they support your thesis. Second, you should address likely reader objections to your thesis.

Structure The structure of a good college essay depends entirely on its thesis statement. A well-structured essay presents an explicit thesis early on that forecasts the essay's structure. Every element of the essay helps support and develop that thesis. The Introduction engages the reader's interest in the critical question the thesis addresses. Each paragraph in the Body of the essay develops and supports a single point that helps confirm the thesis. (Body paragraphs always begin with a one-sentence statement of the paragraph's main point: its Topic Sentence.) The Conclusion restates the essay's thesis and summarizes its argument. In a well-structured essay, a reader could read just your thesis and your topic sentences and have a perfectly comprehensible outline of your essay.

The Classic Short Story, 1870-1925 Florence Goyet,2014-01-13 The ability to construct a nuanced narrative or complex character in the constrained form of the short story has sometimes been seen as the ultimate test of an author s creativity Yet during the time when the short story was at its most popular the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries even the greatest writers followed strict generic conventions that were far from subtle This expanded and updated translation of Florence Goyet s influential La Nouvelle 1870 1925 Description d un genre son apog e Paris 1993 is the only study to focus exclusively on this classic period across different continents Ranging through French English Italian Russian and Japanese writing particularly the stories of Guy de Maupassant Henry James Giovanni Verga Anton Chekhov and Akutagawa Ryunosuke Goyet shows that these authors were able to create brilliant and successful short stories using the very simple tools of brevity of that period In this challenging and far reaching study Goyet looks at classic short stories in the context in which they were read at the time cheap newspapers and higher end periodicals She demonstrates that despite the apparent intention of these stories to question bourgeois ideals they mostly affirmed the prejudices of their readers In doing so her book forces us to rethink our preconceptions about this forgotten genre Words that Count: A Guide to Writing Analytical Essays about Fiction

Kate Sheckler, 2019-01-01 Language is complex Written or spoken the complexity of language makes the medium the versatile tool we need but also creates the potential for a wide variety of misunderstandings and mistakes Whether we are attempting to understand a piece of fiction or writing a text to make our thoughts comprehensible to others the complexity of language is both necessary and fraught That said the inevitable pitfalls don't mean we need to sacrifice precision or accuracy This guide is a step by step process that offers hands on methods for accurate analysis and precise essay construction Chapter one deals with a variety of methods by which to approach stories and novels such that your analysis is structured on carefully constructed logical progression founded on the primary text rather than on hunches and guesswork and chapter two offers infrastructures and scaffolding on which any essay can be structured The structures included in chapter two are not a template and thus do not limit style or content rather they are based on a series of tasks that must be completed for an argument to be convincing As such the tasks offer a kind of map through the process of essay writing that always indicates your next step Contrary to accepted mythologies about analyzing fiction and writing essays neither is a guessing game and this text can help you remove the guesswork from your own process Flannery O'Connor R.
