A Linguistic Handbook of French for Translators and Language Students Paul Boucher, 2018-04-03 A Linguistic Handbook of French for Translators and Language Students offers the reader an in depth contrastive study of French and English based on recent theories of linguistics and discourse analysis At the same time it is a practical manual for the advanced language student or the translator with dozens of exercises in analyzing and translating French along with detailed corrections Organized in three sections Structure Perspective and Coherence the handbook first explores French word formation and syntax then moves on to the use of tense and aspect illocution and speech styles in various text types Finally problems concerning textual coherence and cohesion in both languages are discussed anaphora and ellipsis relevance and equivalence and information structure Each chapter is followed by a list of suggested readings for further discussion and a detailed glossary at the end of the book explains all technical terms used The handbook is designed to be used either as a textbook or for individuals working at home

Discourse Pragmatics and the Verb Suzanne Fleischman, LINDA WAUGH, 2016-11-18 First published in 1990 this collection investigates grammatical categories associated with the verb as they are used by speakers and writers in real discourses and texts Focusing on tense aspect mood and voice in French Spanish and Italian each chapter underscores the importance of context in our understanding of how grammatical categories work Above and beyond their basic grammatical functions categories of the verb are shown to operate in such capacities as structuring information in discourse establishing point of view in a text and creating textual cohesion Importantly this volume reflects the crucial role discourse pragmatics factors play in our interpretation of the meanings of categories of grammar

Time and the Verb Robert I. Binnick,1991 This guide provides the reader with a broad perspective of grammar from classical Greek and Latin to the latest proposals in formal semantics Teaching French Grammar in Context Stacey Katz

Bourns,Stacey L. Katz,Carl Stewart Blyth,2007-01-01 Something needs to be done about grammar Katz and Blyth have written this book with the hope of changing the way French instructors teach and conceive of grammar Intended to help teachers and teacher trainers develop an understanding of French discourse that is grounded in recent theoretical and sociolinguistic research this book is devoted to informing teachers in training as well as experienced teachers about cutting edge methods for teaching grammar It also describes the grammatical features of the French language in its social context At the same time it provides suggestions for applying such abstract knowledge in practical pedagogical ways for example how to structure grammatical explanations devise classroom activities and take advantage of resources that give students greater exposure to French as it is truly used in various discourse environments Proust's Snobs, Inverts, and Jews

Adeline Soldin,2025-03-06 An intersectional investigation of identity formation in Marcel Proust s magnum opus As metonyms for broader categories such as class sexuality and ethnicity the three most discussed identity groups in Proust s la Recherche du Temps Perdu snobs inverts and Jews prove to be deeply intertwined and perplexing representations Attentive to these interwoven complexities Proust s Snobs Inverts and Jews examines the novelist s exploitation of classification systems as a means to subvert the notion of a fixed identity To illustrate Proust s challenges to a social order that restricts our perceptions of identity Adeline Soldin addresses the inconsistencies and friction surrounding the portrayal of these key figures in his seven volume novel Many scholars have recognized that the narrator s formative journey in La Recherche leads to disillusionment and increased mockery of his fellow characters Soldin contends however that Proust does not merely deride characters behavior but rather interrogates their diverse motivations and tendencies thereby exposing the performative nature of identity Proust s Snobs Inverts and Jews draws on Judith Butler s theories of performativity to illustrate Proust s precocious portrayal of identity in La Recherche as an elusive unattainable idea that characters pursue yet consistently fail to establish Ultimately the enigmatic and anonymous narrator models fluidity and promotes fantasy and imagination to compensate for the limitations imposed on individuals by social and linguistic conventions Relative Tense and Aspectual Values in Tibetan Languages Bettina Zeisler,2011-06-24 This study presents a comparative approach to a universal theory of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD combining the methods of comparative and historical linguistics fieldwork text linguistics and philology The parts of the book discuss and describe i the concepts of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD ii the Tibetan system of RELATIVE TENSE and aspectual values with main sections on Old and Classical Tibetan Lhasa Tibetan and East Tibetan Amdo and Kham and iii West Tibetan Ladakhi Purik Balti Part iv presents the comparative view Discussing the similarities and differences of temporal and aspectual concepts the study rejects the general claim that ASPECT is a linguistic universal A new linguistic concept FRAMING is introduced in order to account for the aspect like conceptualisations found in e g English The concept of RELATIVE TENSE or taxis may likewise not be universal Among the Tibetan varieties West Tibetan is unique in having fully grammaticalized the concept of ABSOLUTE TENSE West Tibetan is compared diachronically with Old and Classical Tibetan documented since the mid 8th century and synchronically with several contemporary Tibetan varieties The grammaticalized forms of each variety are described on the basis of their employment in discourse The underlying general function of the Tibetan verbal system is thus shown to be that of RELATIVE TENSE Secondary aspectual functions are described for restricted contexts A special focus on the pragmatic or metaphorical use of present tense constructions in Tibetan leads to a typology of narrative conventions The last part also offers some suggestions for the reconstruction of the Proto Tibetan verb system

Tense and Aspect in Romance Languages Dalila Ayoun, M. Rafael Salaberry, 2005-08-18 This volume presents a state of the art descriptive and explanatory analysis of the second language development of Romance tense aspect systems It contains new experimental data from adult French Catalan Portuguese learners and Italian children learners Standing research questions are addressed and pedagogical implications for foreign language classrooms are proposed arguing that there are possible commonalities in the instructional sequences of tense aspect development in Romance languages The first chapter presents an overview of current theoretical approaches and a summary of empirical findings The following four chapters introduce new empirical data from a variety of theoretical perspectives e g the Aspect Hypothesis the UG Minimalist framework Chapter 5 proposes practical pedagogical approaches for the foreign language classroom based on empirical findings The last chapter summarizes and discusses these findings in order to start elaborating a more comprehensive model of the development of tense aspect marking in the Romance languages

Language Bases ... Discourse Bases Gilberte Piérait-Le Bonniec, Marlene Dolitsky, 1991-03-22 When child language began to be studied in the sixties what interested researchers most was what could be considered language per se Holophrases were excluded as seemingly having no syntax and research work was carried out as of the two word stage Language development was studied up to around age seven the age at which natural acquisition processes were considered to be contaminated by formal schooling in language In opposition to such an attitude this volume has ignored this heavily studied area of language development preferring to present research being carried out at the two ends of the development process that had been rejected that of prelinguistic speech skills at the one end and the development of discourse at the other This book thus begins with the physical properties in human development necessary for language to occur It also offers studies on a child's initial equipment i e intra uterine skills and skills acquired before first words At the other end are studies on the development of discourse i e the child's acquisition of the ability not only to juxtapose ideas but to link them into cohesive coherent texts and to use argumentation skills that are not fully acquired until the child is well into
