Book Preview 1: I have never liked Christmas. In my family, there were happy Thanksgivings and tolerable Easters, but Christmas was a holiday we failed at with real vigor. I blame this on my parents' divorce. 2: Christmas was a bad day for expectations and heart's desires. My father's presents were always the saddest because they were so consistently wrong. I never liked the presents, but I loved Christmas. 3: My father wanted me to be a dental hygienist, unlike my sister who was shooting the lights out in school. He thought I should be realistic about my chances of inheriting Disneyland. 4: I loved the story, and I understood it was fiction. I knew that the narrator was a made-up person, but I still felt her pain. I understood that writers did not have to be confined by their own dull lives and petty Christmas sadness.      Resources in Education, 1990-10      A Comprehensive Summary and Analysis of The Gentle Graft by O.
