
Why does the book split off into Part Two at the end of this chapter?
(you may have to wait to answer this)

Although he does not have a clear sense of how he'll achieve his enlightenment, Siddhartha is confident that he will find his way through his own direction. He feels compelled to reenter the material world. Describe a time when you had your own epiphany — a realization, spiritual or otherwise, that you must change directions and start fresh in some way in order to achieve true happiness in a life situation.
