Writing in Tongues Anita Norich,2014-02-01 Writing in Tongues examines the complexities of translating Yiddish literature at a time when the Yiddish language is in decline After the Holocaust Soviet repression and American assimilation the survival of traditional Yiddish literature depends on translation yet a few Yiddish classics have been translated repeatedly while many others have been ignored Anita Norich traces historical and aesthetic shifts through versions of these canonical texts and she argues that these works and their translations form an enlightening conversation about Jewish history and identity

My Struggle with Churches, Religions, and Human Governments Vick Maiz Barcelon,2024-03-19 We human beings have a very big problem with reality We struggle to know and to understand nature but we can never know the beginning cause and what reality is all about Our physical sciences cannot give us a complete picture and explanation of reality nor of all the forces powers and energies in nature and whether the universe as we know it is all that there is or is a mere insignificant fragment of an unknowable infinite cosmos and order of things Our physical sciences do not even know the origin and source of the power and energy that make us live why our physical life is passing away and what happens after our physical death Physicist scientist Max Planck in fact said that Science cannot solve the ultimate mystery of nature and that is because in the last analysis we are part of the mystery that we are trying to solve Religions on the other hand are trying to fill in the gaps and are offering explanations to what our physical sciences have failed to provide answers The truth of the matter is that neither science alone nor religion alone can give us a complete understanding of reality They actually supplement and complement each other in our search for the truth Physicist scientist Albert Einstein made this matter very clear that Science without religion is lame religion without science is blind This book is my struggle in the synchronization and synergy of religious beliefs and faith with the physical realities and actual discoveries of our physical sciences for their symphony and harmony in diversity in our quest to know the origin power and energy that created reality of the irresistible inviolable laws governing it and of mankind s existence and destiny in the way of the basic Law of Nature of Cause and Effect VICK MAIZ BARCELON

Evolution and Bahá'í Belief Keven Brown,Eberhard Von Kitzing,2001 Studies in the Babi and Baha i Religions Volume 12This is the first and only serious academic treatment of the subject of evolution in the teachings of the Bah Faith The authors provide an exhaustive discussion of the historical context of Abdu l Bah s remarks on and objections to the Darwinian theories of his time presenting modern alternatives to contemporary interpretations of his remarks. Keven Brown's essay investigates the religious controversy that has surrounded the subject of evolution both within Christianity and within Islam during Abdu'l-Bah's time. He provides a valuable summary of the views of those the Master called the philosophers of the East. Then from the perspective of modern science, Eberhard von Kitzing discusses the impact of evolution on the study of biology and suggests that Abdu'l-Bah's teachings have been widely misunderstood. This book will expand and deepen discussion on evolution in the Bahá'í community. Medievalia et Humanistica, No. 39 Reinhold F. Gleis, Wolfgang Polleichtner, 2013-11-26 Since its founding in 1943, Medievalia et Humanistica has won worldwide recognition as the first scholarly publication in America to devote itself entirely to medieval and Renaissance studies. Since 1970 a new series sponsored by the Modern Language Association of America and edited by an international board of distinguished scholars and critics has published interdisciplinary articles. In yearly hardcover volumes the new series publishes significant scholarship, criticism, and reviews treating all facets of medieval and Renaissance culture, history, art, literature, music, science, law, economics, and philosophy. Volume 39 showcases the interdisciplinary nature of the series with five articles on topics ranging from Christian-Jewish controversies, the Muses, and medieval comedy. It features a final essay from Medievalia et Humanistica's longtime editor Paul Maurice Clogan. Volume 39 also includes seven review notices. Universal Version Bible: The Jewish Epistles William Petri, 2016-05-04 Congratulations! You hold in your hands the very 1st Bible of its kind. Today new generations of believers have emerged, and the need to update archaic words while at the same time improving the word-for-word translation for English-speaking people in the 21st century must take place. This unique Bible maintains the Old Testament names of ELOHIM while producing a more accurate, literal, easy-to-read text, complete with extensive translation notes. The Christian Repository, 1852 Issues for 1856-1857 include a section called Family Visitation conducted by Mrs. S. R. Ford. Cyclopaedia Bibliographica James Darling, 1854

Pastors in the Classics Leland Ryken, Philip Ryken, Todd Wilson, 2012 This one-of-a-kind resource introduces pastors and seminarians to wisdom found in literary classics that can shape their ministries today. Redemption Redeemed John Goodwin, 1840 The Philosophy of Religion in Post-Revolutionary Iran Heydar Shadi, 2018-11-16 This book explores the intellectual discourse in post-revolutionary Iran. It focuses on Abdolkarim Soroush, a leading Muslim liberal thinker whose theory of religion is regarded as highly relevant to the current theological and intellectual dynamics in the Islamic world. The Philosophy of Religion in Post-Revolutionary Iran discusses why and how Soroush's thought has developed from an Islamic apologetic/modernist theology in the 1970s to a liberal theory about religion in post-revolutionary Iran. Through a close and detailed analysis of Soroush's main theories, the book argues that Soroush's thought evolved through reception of post-positivist epistemology and interaction with Islamism in practice into a historicist and pluralist theory of religion, a theory that regards religion, including Islam, as being a contextual and historical dialogue between man and the Absolute. The book also highlights some shortcomings of Soroush's reform project. Specifically, it notes that Soroush consciously or unconsciously has not yet admitted many extensive consequences of his theories such as those relating to historicity of religious rituals ibadat or recognition of the post Mohammadan revelations and religions In addition some other features and implications of Soroush s thought such as a historical critical approach to the Koran post secular and post Islamist theologies and his dialogical approach that goes beyond the Orientalism Occidentalism dichotomy are discussed Providing a detailed overview on this leading Muslim thinker this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic Philosophy Middle East Studies and Philosophy of Religion An Apology for the Kafir Bible John Whittle Appleyard,1867 An apology for the Kafir Bible:

Being a reply to the pamphlet entitled, "Rev. J. W. Appleyard's version judged by missionaries of various denominations and others" John William Appleyard,1867
