While growing up I struggled immensely with my sexuality and faith I grew up in church went to a Christian university but desired a homosexual lifestyle I grew up as a Christian but lived divided in my heart I walked away from God for years because I wanted what felt good and right to me I was searching for satisfaction in the desires of my heart and it wasn t until I hit rock bottom that I turned fully to God to fulfill that desire When God asked me why I wasn t turning to Him as my full source of satisfaction I told Him Trust me I ve got this It was absurd and arrogant but a profound insight into the true reality of where my soul stood I wanted love and acceptance but the gratification that these things brought was never enough to appease my thirsting soul While I was running from God He never stopped pursuing me He just wanted my heart He wanted to show me that He was everything I was looking for and more God doesn't stop caring for us and will always be there when we realize this world isn't enough

Transformational Teaching in the Information Age Thomas R. Rosebrough,2011-03-30 How can teachers meet the challenges of engaging and educating all students from those who are gadget toting and plugged in to those who are language learners or economically distressed and everyone in between How can you help students learn what they need to know when the world and all that s in it is changing rapidly Standards and high stakes testing haven t answered the call but you can Transformational Teaching in the Information Age explores the power of placing students at the center of teaching and learning The shift from simply teaching content to focusing on and teaching individual learners allows teachers to inspire students to be independent imaginative and responsible learners for life These teachers are transforming education lives and opportunities for their students A transformational approach to teaching results in a high quality education for today s learners Citing theory research practice and their own experiences in teaching K 18 students Tom Rosebrough and Ralph Leverett build a convincing case for the primacy of student teacher relationships in productive classrooms Knowing students well is critical to teaching to their needs Education cannot be just an effort to cover content pass standardized tests and achieve adequate yearly progress To serve the next generation well it must be about helping each student develop the knowledge skills and attitudes to live a uniquely satisfying life in the face of myriad changes The Silent Speaker Megan Ross,2024-09-11 Are we unaware of the evil that lurks around us Are the choices we make living our lives influencing the silent voice that lives within us Who has the power to control or change that inner voice when it goes into darkness What you re about to read is based on real life events that happened to me while becoming a fashion and beauty influencer and living life the way I saw fit With myself in control and working hard to become successful I thought I had everything figured out nothing was going to stop me from reaching the status I so desperately wanted What was I willing to sacrifice to reach that goal Physically the effects of stress were taking a toll on my body Mentally my inner voice was going into darkness Feeling trapped I reached out to God and asked for help I was finally listening and giving up control One night God used my daughter to get my attention That night my life changed forever I told Him I was listening and I never looked back The journey I ve been on for the last three years is unexpected and transformative This is my testimony of how God saved me and showed me how to help young adults and kids safely use social media Resources in Education ,2000-10
