Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bidirectional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Leap 4.0. African Perspectives on the Fourth Industrial Revolution Zamanzima Mazibuko-Makena, Erika Kraemer-Mbula, 2021-04-09 Leap 4.0 African Perspectives on the Fourth Industrial Revolution seeks to identify the challenges and opportunities the 4IR presents to South Africa and the rest of the African continent especially to workers and marginalised sectors of society Authors examine the prerequisites for the successful introduction of the 4IR including infrastructure skilled personnel and appropriate regulation They underline the importance of inclusive innovation with a deliberate objective to create net new jobs and reduce inequality The 4IR is well established in many parts of the world with technological advances driving profound social and economic change However for many developing countries particularly countries in Africa the 4IR may not offer the anticipated leap forward There is a danger that the continent may find itself dictated to by experiences that are not in tune with its social contexts
