Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A.

Marcum, 2023-04-28 Education Race and Social Change in South Africa examines the deep rooted issues of higher education in South Africa highlighting the complex interplay between race politics and access to education Beginning with the colonial foundations of South African higher education in the early 19th century it traces the development of institutions such as the University of Cape Town and the University of Fort Hare reflecting the segregated nature of the education system As the country transitioned to a republic in the 20th century the policies of apartheid shaped the university landscape leading to the creation of separate institutions for various racial groups The book explores how these divisions have persisted particularly in the context of racial inequalities in enrollment and access to quality education with black students historically underrepresented in South Africa's leading universities The study also delves into the evolving nature of South African higher education in the face of racial segregation examining the impact of political shifts on the educational landscape With the rise of the National Party in 1948 and the implementation of strict segregation policies the book explores the creation of ethnic universities for non white students and the ongoing challenges faced by these institutions in providing quality education The book raises critical questions about the future of education in South Africa focusing on the need for reform to bridge the educational divide address teacher shortages and promote greater racial integration within universities It also considers the role of international collaboration and aid in fostering educational opportunities for black South Africans and suggests possible pathways for achieving equitable educational access This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982

Paço, Judy Rogers, Olga Kuznetsova, Paula Castro, 2016-11-23 This Handbook approaches sustainable development in higher education from an integrated perspective addressing the dearth of publications on the subject It offers a unique overview of what universities around the world are doing to implement sustainable development i.e. via curriculum innovation research activities or practical projects and how their efforts relate to education for sustainable development at the university level The Handbook gathers a wealth of information ideas best practices and lessons learned in the context of executing concrete projects and assesses methodological approaches to integrating the topic of sustainable development in university curricula. Lastly, it documents and disseminates the veritable treasure trove of practical experience currently available on sustainability in higher education.

Internationalization in Higher Education and Research Lars Engwall, 2024-01-01. This book examines the pros and cons of the internationalization of higher education institutions, which is an important feature of modern universities. It makes a significant contribution to our understanding of universities and an important input to the assessment of the internationalization of higher education institutions both for regulators and for the universities themselves. The book's three parts focus on a number of issues associated with internationalization. The first part, Perspectives on Internationalization, provides critical reflections on internationalization on the globally distributed European American university and on the impact of rankings. The second part, The Obstacles to Internationalization, deals with the significance of language challenges of mobility and environment concerns. The third part, Alternative Modes of Internationalization, discusses internationalization at home, international distance education, and the establishment of international branch campuses.

Higher Education in Africa Damtew Teferra, Jane Knight, 2008. The first of its kind, this book documents and analyzes the international dimension of higher education in Africa based on country case studies and a consideration of relevant historical and contemporary themes. It identifies trends, developments, and challenges related to the international dimension of higher education at the institutional, national, and regional levels. It explores the institutional opportunities and probes the risks while it responds to the growing need for information and analysis of internationalization of higher education in Africa. On the basis of this book project, an effort is underway to establish the African Network for Internationalization of Education (ANIE). This network aims to develop research capacity and expertise to meet the professional and practical needs of individuals, institutions, and organizations interested in the international dimension of higher education in Africa.

OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2022 OECD, 2022-08-25. The COVID-19 crisis has weakened an already fragile economy. South Africa's growth underperformed during the past decade. GDP per capita was already lower in 2019 than in 2008. Unemployment remains high at around 35% and youth unemployment even exceeds 50%. In the meantime, spending pressures are mounting to close the financing gap in health infrastructure and higher education.
