Productivity Improvement in Manufacturing SMEs Thomas Thinandavha Munyai, Boysana Lephoi Mbonyane, Charles Mbohwa, 2017-12-12 This book focuses on the application of workstudy in productivity of manufacturing SMEs locally and abroad and also explores various industrial problems which face manufacturing SMEs in developing and underdeveloped countries in the rest of the world Low productivity is currently a serious challenge facing manufacturing

SMEs where these SMEs are operating below expected production output levels which makes it difficult for them to compete in the global market SMEs are the engine drivers of economic growth one of which is manufacturing The challenge is that government from various countries in developing and underdeveloped countries mandated agencies in their respective areas to ensure that there is economic progress for these SMEs but productivity remains low in the manufacturing SMEs When SMEs do not perform well productivity of manufacturing SMEs declines and unemployment increases Thus an increase in unemployment results in a drop of GDP in the country and can become a global and economic crisis This book describes a process which enables the reader to use effective knowledge that addresses problems facing the productivity of manufacturing SMEs such as work study tools and case studies and provides solutions and applications to improve the running of the manufacturing SMEs in growing their productivity Higher Education Pathways Ashwin, Paul,Case, Jennifer M.,2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues ICEL

2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell,Richard Hartshorn,2017 Museum Studies for a Post-Pandemic World Leda Cempellin,Pat Crawford,2024-05-17 Museum Studies for a Post Pandemic World demonstrates that digital literacy creativity and resilience as the COVID 19 pandemic has so vividly illustrated are now vital components of the classroom and of the curator s toolbox Museum studies students are increasingly asked to engage with new team dynamics and collaborative models often relocated to the virtual world Authored by academics cultural heritage partners students and alumni the chapters in this volume move beyond a consideration of the impact of digitisation to envision new strategies and pedagogies for fuller more sustainable approaches to cultural literacy exhibition and visitor engagement International case studies present models of collaborative practices between teams of diverse sizes and professional backgrounds The volume demonstrates that the COVID 19 pandemic has forced the use of a variety of pedagogically and culturally significant hybrid and virtual models that provide innovative learning modalities to meet the needs of future generations of digital native patrons This book offers meaningful strategies that will help academic and cultural heritage institutions engaged in museum studies to survive and even thrive in the face of future disasters by expanding programme accessibility beyond the physical confines of their buildings Museum Studies for a Post Pandemic World will be of interest to students and researchers engaged in the study of museums the arts cultural management and education It should also be of interest to museum practitioners around the world
