Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney,Pam Christie,2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguaging It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces

Fees Must Fall Susan Booyesen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Design Commons
Gerhard Bruyns, Stavros Kousoulas, 2022-05-17 This book directly links the notion of the commons with different design praxes and explores their social cultural and ecological ramifications It draws out material conditions in four areas of design interest social design commons and culture ecology and transdisciplinary design As a collection of positions the diversity of arguments advances the understanding of the commons as both concepts and modes of thinking and their material translation when contextualised in the domain of design questions In other words it moves abstract social science concepts towards concrete design debates This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners working on design in architecture architecture theory urbanism and ecology

Monument Culture Laura A. Macaluso, 2019-05-30 Monument Culture International Perspectives on the Future of Monuments in a Changing World brings together a collection of essays from scholars and cultural critics working on the meanings of monuments and memorials in the second decade of the twenty first century a time of great social and political change The book presents a broad view of the challenges facing individuals and society in making sense of public monuments with contested meanings From the United States to Europe to Africa to Australia and New Zealand to South America and beyond the contributors tackle the ways in which different places approach monuments in a landscape where institutions and ideas are under direct challenge from political and social unrest It also discusses sharply changed attitudes about the representation of history and memory in the public sphere The goal is to acknowledge shared experiences through a wider perspective to contribute to the work of the world wide heritage community and to document the history and shifting cultural attitudes towards monument culture across the world encouraging a more informed approach to monuments and their meanings especially for the public and those outside of academia Research Anthology on Innovative Research Methodologies and Utilization Across Multiple Disciplines Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-12-30 Research methodology is as old as academia itself Research methodology shifts in strategy as it crosses different disciplines and theories This too is true with the shifting landscape of research opportunities and technologies available to global researchers To achieve the most accurate and substantial research it is important to be knowledgeable of emerging research methodologies The Research Anthology on Innovative Research Methodologies and Utilization Across Multiple Disciplines discusses the most recent global research innovations made across multiple fields This anthology further discusses how these research methodologies can be applied to a variety of specific fields Covering topics such as creative thinking qualitative research and the research method landscape this book is essential for students and faculty of higher education scientists researchers sociologists computer scientists and academicians

Polymers and Two-Dimensional Nanocomposites Rotimi Sadiku, Yskandar Hamam, Suprakas Sinha Ray, Oladipo Folorunso, 2024-11-23 Polymers and Two Dimensional Nanocomposites provides a detailed review of recent progress in this important research field The chapters cover new developments in synthesis methods fabrication techniques sample preparation methods surface modification characterization methods of enhancing the properties of these materials and industrial applications in energy environmental oil and gas sensors corrosion biomedical and structural applications The book provides a valuable reference resource for academic and industrial researchers materials scientists and engineers working in the fields of polymer science and engineering polymer composites and nanocomposites Covers recent developments in synthesis characterization properties and applications Discusses new fabrication techniques and how to select the right processing conditions Systematic presentation of theoretical and experimental investigation of properties for various industrial applications Attention is given to current challenges and future improvements

Design of Functional Polymer Nanocomposites Rotimi Sadiku, Oluranti Agboola, Kokkarachedu Varaprasad, Mapula Lucey Mavhungu, 2025-07-01 Design of Functional Polymer Nanocomposites Interface and Interphase Reactions Compatibilization and Bond Behavior and Functionalization Procedures reviews the latest developments in this fast moving research field The book discusses interface and interphase interactions in polymer nanocomposites as well as compatibilization behavior and different functionalization procedures It illustrates how each of these essential tools can be used in the design of new polymer nanocomposites for a broad range of different industrial scale applications In the research and development of polymer nanocomposites the interface and interphase reactions of different constituents is extremely important They play a vital role in introducing additional features and in the final resultant properties of the nanocomposite In addition final properties are also dependent upon the bond behavior and the reaction and interface created between the two constituents Covers interface and interphase reactions

Discusses compatibilization behavior and different functionalization procedures as essential design tools Presents preparation strategies such as polycondensation copolymerization and free radical chains polymerization Provides a diverse focus on a wide range of high performance applications      Strategies for Promoting Sustainable Hospitality and Tourism Services Korstanje, Maximiliano Emanuel, George, Babu, Nedelea, Alexandru-Mircea, 2020-06-26 Tourism marketing is a vital tool in promoting the overall health of the global economy This brings necessary revenue to particular regions of the world that have limited revenue producing resources and provides an opportunity for tourists to explore another culture therefore building tolerance and overall exposure to different ways of life Strategies for Promoting Sustainable Hospitality and Tourism Services is a crucial scholarly source that discusses interdisciplinary perspectives in the areas of global tourism and highlights cultural boundaries of strategic knowledge management through case studies Featuring research on topics such as consumer behavior cultural appreciation and global economics this book is ideally designed for academicians research scholars marketing professionals graduate level students and industry professionals      Business Intelligence: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2015-12-29 Data analysis is an important part of modern business administration as efficient compilation of information allows managers and business leaders to make the best decisions for the financial solvency of their organizations Understanding the use of analytics reporting and data mining in everyday business environments is imperative to the success of modern businesses Business Intelligence Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications presents a comprehensive examination of business data analytics along with case studies and practical applications for businesses in a variety of fields and corporate arenas Focusing on topics and issues such as critical success factors technology adaptation agile development approaches fuzzy logic tools and best practices in business process management this multivolume reference is of particular use to business analysts investors corporate managers and entrepreneurs in a variety of prominent industries      Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper, 2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon Orphan Plant Species for Food Security and Nutrition: Successes, Challenges, and a Way Forward Enoch G. Achigan-Dako,Iago Lowe Hale,Katherine Steele,E. O. Deedi Sogbohossou,2023-03-31 Learning for a Better Future Suzanne Hattingh,2021-12-31 Various international scholars and associates of the PASCAL Place Social Capital and Learning Regions International Observatory Africa hub under the auspices of the Centre for Local Economic Development CENLED based at the University of Johannesburg UJ have contributed chapters in this scholarly book The book aims to demonstrate how a combination of globalisation pandemics and the impact of innovation and technologies are driving towards a world in which traditional ideas are being challenged The book carries forward a dual context and relevance to South African social educational economic and cultural development and the broader international context and action directed at how lifelong learning for all can be fostered in communities as a foundation for a just human centred sustainable world The distinctive contribution of this book to the production of a local body of knowledge lies in the symbiotic relationships between these objectives so that South Africa could serve as a test case in working towards approaches that have a wider international significance

Dodd,2019-10-15 Though initially considered a welcome counterweight to Western interest across Africa the BRICS are increasingly being viewed as another example of foreign interference and exploitation BRICS and Resistance in Africa explores the varied forms of African resistance being developed in response to the growing influence of the BRICS Its case studies cover such instances as the opposition to China's One Belt One Road initiative in East Africa resistance to the BRICS oil activities in the Niger Delta and the role of the BRICS in Zimbabwe's political transition The contributors expose the contradictions between the group's rhetoric and its real impact as well as the complicity of local elites in serving as proxies for the BRICS nations By challenging and expanding the debates surrounding BRICS involvement in Africa this collection offers new insight into resistance to globalization in the global South Forging Solidarity Astrid von Kotze,Shirley

Walters,2017-04-13 Animating this book is a twofold question In what ways are adult and popular educators responding to various harsh economic political cultural and environmental conditions In doing so are they planting seeds of hope for and imaginings of alternative futures which can connect individuals and communities locally and globally to achieve economic ecological and social justice The book illustrates how transformative politics of solidarity often involve actors across vastly different backgrounds Solidarity is therefore a political relationship that is forged through particular struggles situated in place and time across power differentials The authors put popular education to work by describing and analysing their strategies and approaches They do so using accessible language and engaging styles Popular education is a medium for dreaming for imagining other futures It is also essential for countering the wilful spreading of fake news and propagation of ignorance Pedagogies of solidarity are necessary to building connections amongst people at a time when competitive individualism and alienation are rampant Forging solidarity with and amongst communities is a means towards that end and indeed an end in itself Corporate mines and agribusiness poison the water we drink the air we breathe and the food we eat Together with their political proxies they destroy the earth and her peoples too many are killed because of their military economic religious and information wars How do we stand up for ourselves and the earth that nourishes us against this global system Forging Solidarity shares inspiring stories that feed our deep connection and power Prege Govender Author of Love and Courage A Story of Insubordination Forging Solidarity is a critical and timely collective intervention that ponders prods pokes and plays in the most generative ways In so doing it invites us to continue deepening our engagements with questions of responsibility and justice in relation to education everywhere Richa Nagar author of Muddying the Waters Co authoring Feminisms across Scholarship and Activism This book inspires people to realize that not fighting against socio economic injustices is to side with oppressors Ntombi Nyathi Programme Director of Training for Transformation Trends in Manufacturing and Engineering Management S. Vijayan,Nachiappan Subramanian,K. Sankaranarayanan,2020-08-19 This book comprises select papers presented at the International Conference on Mechanical Engineering Design ICMechD 2019 The volume focuses on the different design aspects involved in manufacturing composite materials processing as well as in engineering management A wide range of topics such as control and automation mechatronics robotics composite and nanomaterial design and welding design are covered here The book also discusses current research in engineering management on topics like products services and system design optimization in design manufacturing planning and control and sustainable product design Given the range of the contents this book will prove useful to students researchers and practitioners
