A. Stear,2012-12-06 The author s aim in writing this book is to integrate currently available knowledge concerning the basic scientific and technological aspects of breadmaking processes with the diverse breadmaking methods used to manufacture bread in Europe and on the North American continent today To date the main technological advances have been in process mechanization starting with oven development then dough processing or make up equipment followed by continuous and batch mixing techniques from the 1950s to the present time On the engineering side universal emphasis is now being placed on the application of high technology in the form of microprocessors computer controlled equipment and robotization the long term objective being computer integrated manufacture CIM with full automation within the large chain bakery groups in the capitalist countries and the state run collectives of Eastern Europe The application of these key technologies with biotechnology as yet only applied to a limited degree in food manufacture coupled with advances in biochemical and rheological understanding of dough as a biomass for breadmaking should provide us with more expertise and ability to control the processes with greater efficiency The application of fermentable substrates and industrial enzymes under strict kinetic control should contribute to improving the flavour characteristics of bread Current trends towards improving the nutritional contribution of bread to the daily diet are improving the competitive edge of bread as a basic food in the market place

Learning to Live Alone Bob Hurmence, 2007-07 What man plans to be the last to die in a marriage We all believe and statistics support the fact that women live longer than men so why worry about living alone Leave all the hassles to your loving wife She'll take your hard earned money and swish off to Paris But what if God forbid that without warning without any premonition without even saying I love you she is gone Suddenly you are alone How do you cope What skills do you possess Housekeeping skills that is Cooking cleaning laundry Did your wife keep the calendar write the birthday cards make the appointments call the repairmen Who will look after you make sure your tie matches your socks are the same that you get a haircut and you watch your language This book may not have all of the answers and probably not all of the problems but it does offer advice and comfort to those who are living the life of a widower from one who is living that life So this is not so much a book about death as it is about how to live Not the way you planned perhaps but the life that has been given to you
