Reflections in Prison Mac Maharaj, 2010-11-18 In 1976 when he was imprisoned on Robben Island Nelson Mandela secretly wrote the bulk of his autobiography Long Walk to Freedom. The manuscript was to be smuggled out by fellow prisoner Mac Maharaj on his release later that year. Maharaj also urged Mandela and other political prisoners to write essays on southern Africa's political future. These were smuggled out with Mandela's autobiography and are now published for the first time 25 years later in Reflections in Prison. This collection of essays provides a unique snapshot of the thinking of Nelson Mandela, Walter Sisulu, Govan Mbeki, Ahmed Kathrada and other leaders of the anti-apartheid struggle on the eve of the 1976 Soweto Uprising. It gives an insight into their philosophies, strategies and hopes as they debate diversity and unity, violent and non-violent forms of struggle and non-racism in the context of different interpretations of African nationalism. Each essay is preceded by a short biography of the author, a description of his life in prison and a pencil sketch by a leading black South African artist. The collection begins with a foreword by Desmond Tutu and a contextualising introduction by Mac Maharaj. These essays are far more than historical artefacts. They reveal the thinking that contributed to the South African miracle and address issues that remain burningly relevant today.

The Burden of Educational Exclusion, 2010-01-01 School was nothing but a taboo for me, concludes Johannah, a young South African, after recounting her life story. Johannah is one of the early school leavers who features in this book. Figures on participation in education in Africa show that despite government agreements and policies developed under the banner of Education for All, this remains a remote goal. In several countries, programmes on Universal Primary Education have improved access to education, but do those who enter school remain there until they have reached a suitable level? Do they acquire enough competences at primary and secondary school to survive the tough daily life in sub-Saharan countries? What happens to children and young adults who leave school early? What measures can be taken to prevent them from doing so? This book is based on research carried out in Eastern and Southern Africa by scholars from Africa and the Netherlands who cooperated within the framework of the ESLA project. The contributions to this book reflect the exchanges and discussions which took place in this research group initiated by staff of Mzumbe University in Tanzania, Uganda Martyrs University and the University of Groningen in the Netherlands. The group aims to go beyond figures and uncover the causes, effects and stories of the young people involved, as well as explore promising new strategies with which to address their needs. As early school leaving is not exclusively an African problem, a contribution on the Dutch situation is also included. The book concludes that exclusion from education has far-reaching effects, not only for the young people involved but also for the society in which they live. The burden of educational exclusion should be the joint responsibility of developing and developed countries. The authors hope the book will contribute not only to a greater understanding of the phenomenon of early school leaving but also challenge it in terms of developing policies and programmes that can prevent educational exclusion and support those who already find themselves in such a situation.

Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country's borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro's anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro's life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro's story and its lasting significance in South Africa's history A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa 1972 Muriel Horrell, Dudley Horner, John Kane-Berman, Robin Margo, 2023-11-10 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973 Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day Looking Through Philosophy in Black Mabogo Percy More, 2018-12-11 This autobiography is a series of interrelated true life events and decisions taken by a black philosopher that highlight the human drama unfolding in the inferno of the South African apartheid system Mabogo More details what it means to be a black philosopher in an anti black apartheid academic world More's life story traces his emergence in philosophy and his pursuit of a philosophical dream a dream that takes him from his South African black ghetto township to American and British universities and finally to the prestigious Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement award His extraordinary philosophical autobiography with an emphasis on African existentialism that takes into account issues of racism identity liberation freedom alienation responsibility and bad faith is supplemented by three key essays from his intellectual career representing the extraordinary contribution he has made to African philosophy and black existentialism Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson, 2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson's book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt's continued significance to struggles against oppression today

A Quest for Justice Mzukisi Ndara, 2021-10-01 It's a proverbial battle of David versus Goliath A senior government employee has been embroiled in a bitter battle against one of the country's largest financiers Wesbank His story is mired in alleged fraud corruption and misconduct The Grahamstown High Court this week dismissed with costs an appeal by Wesbank a division of FirstRand for the third time against earlier rulings made in favour of Mzukisi Ndara In the pursuit for justice Ndara has approached several high ranking politicians Parliament as the custodian of the country's laws the Hawks and the courts But 15 years into the battle the matter has yet to be resolved And some dockets containing vital evidence have gone missing Ndara has now turned to the Director of Public Prosecutions as a last resort Long and Winding Road for Justice Bulelwa Payi Weekend Argus March 19 2019 Based on your statement together with police evidential material and the circumstances of this matter Wesbank and or its employees breached the contract in the form of misrepresentations and acted in violation of various statutes as alluded to in your reports National Director of Public Prosecutions NDPP Advocate Shamila Batohi September 24 2019 Your story needs to be told for business and government to understand they can't keep turning a blind eye to their people who believe the end justifies the means regarding profit making Professor Thuli Madonsela June 4 2020 A seventeen year journey of sheer guts and resilience Dr Charity Hove October 6 2021 It is a baffling bewildering and unsettling story best summarized by your insightful self observation Part One page 31 my inner desire for truth You write with fluency and power the first part of your account embracing your earlier life is amusing wry entertaining and in parts engrossing The later parts make for more challenging reading because of the anguish of the cumulating injustices delays lawyerly and institutional disingenuousness and evasions you suffered Your account is truly a Dickensian tale of the law's delays and obscurities of lawyers and journalists evasions with very occasional light points of courage loyalty and competence Retired Constitutional Court Justice Edwin Cameron September 6 202
