Design Commons Gerhard Bruyns,Stavros Kousoulas,2022-05-17 This book directly links the notion of the commons with different design praxes and explores their social cultural and ecological ramifications It draws out material conditions in four areas of design interest social design commons and culture ecology and transdisciplinary design As a collection of positions the diversity of arguments advances the understanding of the commons as both concepts and modes of thinking and their material translation when contextualised in the domain of design questions In other words it moves abstract social science concepts towards concrete design debates This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners working on design in architecture architecture theory urbanism and ecology

Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit ,2022 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Monument Culture Laura A. Macaluso, 2019-05-30 Monument Culture International Perspectives on the Future of Monuments in a Changing World brings together a collection of essays from scholars and cultural critics working on the meanings of monuments and memorials in the second decade of the twenty first century a time of great social and political change The book presents a broad view of the challenges facing individuals and society in making sense of public monuments with contested meanings From the United States to Europe to Africa to Australia and New Zealand to South America and beyond the contributors tackle the ways in which different places approach monuments in a landscape where institutions and ideas are under direct challenge from political and social unrest It also discusses sharply changed attitudes about the representation of history and memory in the public sphere The goal is to acknowledge shared experiences through a wider perspective to contribute to the work of the world wide heritage community and to document the history and shifting cultural attitudes towards monument culture across the world encouraging a more informed approach to monuments and their meanings especially for the public and those outside of academia Measuring and Implementing Altmetrics in

Library and Information Science Research Baskaran, C., 2020-01-17 Researchers are becoming increasingly concerned with tracking the impact and reach that their research has on the academic community Through the implementation of altmetrics they can now better measure the value that their research has through the analysis of citing behavior and citation based research evaluation Measuring and Implementing Altmetrics in Library and Information Science Research is a critical research book that focuses on how altmetrics can help researchers to uncover evidence of societal engagement influence and broader impacts that demonstrate the value of their research It builds a more complete picture of the visibility and profile of individual researchers and observes real time social media updates that provide insight into how faculty s research is being shared from the moment it is published Featuring a range of topics such as citations big data and social media this book is essential for researchers educators librarians professionals academicians administrators and students Decoloniality,

Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney, Pam Christie, 2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguageing It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Gender, Protests and Political Change in Africa Awino Okech, 2020-07-03 This book brings together conceptual debates on the impact of youth hood and gender on state building in Africa It offers contemporary and interdisciplinary analyses on the role of protests as an alternative route for citizens to challenge the ballot box as the only legitimate means of ensuring freedom Drawing on case studies from seven African countries the contributors focus on specific political moments in their respective countries to offer insights into how the state society social contract is contested through informal channels and how political power functions to counteract citizen s voices These contributions offer a different way of thinking about state building and structural change that goes beyond the system based approaches that dominate scholarship on democratization and political structures In effect it provides a basis for organizers and social movements to consider how to build solidarity beyond influencing government institutions Chapters 3 5 and 6 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link.springer.com

Educational Leadership in Becoming Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2016-08-25 Educational Leadership in Becoming reconsiders educational leadership in its current forms and presents a more plausible form of educational leadership to contend with the complexities currently found in universities and schools Much of the literature in vogue concerning educational leadership ranges from transactional to transformative representations of the concept in relation to educational management and policy curriculum inquiry and pedagogical action The primary aim of this book is to revisit some of the dominant understandings of educational leadership and to offer an extended view of the practice along the lines of potentiality and becoming Davids and Waghid argue that all current forms of educational leadership are insufficient to enact responsible human action particularly when it comes to addressing the combined issues of globalisation and equitable redress and transformation whether in relation to leading schools or universities The primary objective of the book is to draw on the Agambian notion of becoming in order to show that an educational leadership in becoming is better placed to not only address the myriad challenges besetting education but to also enhance the potential of leadership in action The book addresses an international audience by analysing conceptions of transformative leadership and should be read by anyone who is interested in education and educational leadership as well as the impact of neoliberal agendas on education and society It should also appeal to those interested in the philosophy of education A Proposal for the Expanded Fruition of Cultural Heritage Sites Carla Ferreyra,2025-05-06 This book presents a comprehensive methodology integrating analysis digitization and the preservation of cultural heritage It investigates three potential UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy Germany and South Africa and employs a blend of documentary research and advanced digital surveying and data processing techniques The volume shows how these efforts yielded actionable strategies to meet society s evolving demands for surveying recovery and conservation The book documents the work behind the overarching objective which was to digitize analyze categorize and store all collected data within a BIM framework with the aim of streamlining collaboration enhancing management efficiency and optimizing processes It demonstrates the utilization of digital tools in not only amplifying traditional scientific technological approaches to heritage protection but also its role in reshaping the perception comprehension and communication of heritage This fosters the development of more sustainable conservation strategies
